NIA searches across J&K in Pak-backed terror conspiracy case

Srinagar: The National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Tuesday carried out searches at 16 locations across Jammu and Kashmir in a Pakistan backed terror conspiracy case, an official said.

The searches in the houses of suspects at four locations in Anantnag, three in Shopian, two each in Budgam, Srinagar and Poonch and one each in Baramulla, Kishtwar and Rajouri were underway, the official said.

Earlier on May 2, the federal agency conducted raids at 12 locations across J&K and seized incriminating material and digital devices in the terror conspiracy case, which was registered by it on motion on June 21 last year.

The official said the case relates to the hatching of a conspiracy, both physical and in cyberspace, and plans by proscribed terrorist organisations to execute violent terrorist attacks in Jammu and Kashmir with sticky bombs, improvised explosive devices (IEDs) and small arms.

The plans are part of a larger conspiracy by the terrorist groups to commit terror acts in association with local youths and over-ground workers in order to create communal disharmony in Jammu and Kashmir, the official said.

The official said the terrorist outfits involved in the conspiracy were Lashkar-e-Taiba, Jaish-e-Mohammed, Hizb-ul-Mujahideen, Al-Badr and Al-Qaeda, besides their offshoots such as The Resistance Front, United Liberation Front Jammu and Kashmir, Mujahideen Gazwat-ul-Hind, Jammu and Kashmir Freedom Fighters, Kashmir Tigers, and People's Anti-Fascist Front.

According to the NIA, initial investigations indicated that the accused were involved in collection and distribution of sticky bombs or magnetic bombs, IEDs, cash, narcotics and small weapons. These weapons, bombs, narcotics, etc. were being pushed into the Indian soil by Pakistan-based handlers and commanders of proscribed terrorist organisations using drones, the federal agency said. Common uniform for brigadiers and above rank officers from Aug

New Delhi: In a significant move, the Army has decided to go for a common uniform for the officers of the brigadier rank and above from August 1 irrespective of their parent cadre or regiment, military sources said on Tuesday.

The decision was taken after detailed deliberations during last month's Army Commanders Conference and extensive consultations with all stakeholders, they said. "In order to promote and strengthen common identity and approach in service matters amongst senior leadership, beyond the boundaries of regimentations, the Indian Army has decided to adopt a common uniform for brigadier and above rank officers," said a source.

"This will also reinforce the Indian Army's character to be a fair and equitable organisation," the source added. The changes will come into effect from August 1.

The headgear, shoulder rank badges, gorget patches, belt and shoes of flag rank – brigadier and above – will now be standardised in view of the decision, the sources said. The flag rank officers will now not wear any navy serge.

There will be no change to the uniform worn by Colonels and below-rank officers. In the Indian Army, brigadiers and above officers are those who have already commanded units and battalions, and are mostly posted at headquarters or establishments where officers from all arms and services work and function together.

According to sources, a standard uniform will ensure a common identity for all senior rank officers, while reflecting the true ethos of the Indian Army.

Different types of uniforms and accoutrements have specific association with respective arms, regiments and services in the Indian Army. This recognition of distinct identity within the arms or regiment or services is essential for junior leadership and the rank and file to further strengthen camaraderie and regimental ethos which is the bedrock of soldiering, the sources said.
