V.	Rate
	It is established fact that, the govt./jantri rates does not reflect actual market value as compared to prevelling market rate of property. To arrive at fair and resanable market value of property, verbal inquiry was made on the date of visit from prominent estate brokers and local persons in vicinity of the subject property. No reliable written sales instances and evidance was available at the time of visit considering above facts collected from verbal inquiry, to our opinion rate of property can be considered as Rs. 50000 to 60000 per Sq.yd. for net plot area to the best of our experience and knowledge.
	The valuer should consider all the three generic approaches of property valuation and state explicitly the reasons for adoption of / rejection of a particular approach and the basis on which the final valuation judgment is arrived at. A detailed analysis and descriptive account of the approaches, assumptions made, basis adopted, supporting data (in terms of comparable sales), reconciliation of various factors, departures, final valuation arrived at has to be presented here.

FAIR MARKET VALUE AS ON DATE OF VISIT

"Market Value is the estimated amount for which a property should exchange on the date of Valuation between a willing buyer and a willing seller in an arm's length transaction after proper marketing wherein the parties had each acted knowledgeably, prudently and without compulsion."

The fair market value of subject property under valuation as per prescribed definition of market value can be assumed on the basis of available sales instances / verbal inquiry based for going concern concept of valuation information / data collected on the basis of local survey made as on date of visit in respect of actual prevailing market value which has no reliable written evidences due to parallel unaccounted amount included in majority of transactions can be assumed as

Rs. 4320000.00 as per our opinion to the best of our experience.

REALISABLE VALUE.

Realisable / Forced Sale Value is considered as about 10 % - 20 % less than F.M.V., as the price the property would realize in open market on. "As is where is basis". And in non-vacant condition / running condition. As Realizable sale is conducted with the sense of shortest possible time by unwilling seller. Here seller is compelled and forced to sale property to liquidate it in terms of money to clear his debt or compelling circumstances. Thus above can therefore be kept in view while financial appraisal by financial institute / bank considering repaying condition of borrower. Realizable / Forced Sale Value of the said property with the existing usable condition & specification is to best of our opinion and experience can be considered as

RS. 3672000.00

DISTRESS SALE VALUE.

Distress Sale Value is considered 20% - 40% less than F.M.V. depending on type of property / usage of property /production cycle of property and location of property as it reflects value in distress condition of the property. This value is always significantly lower as compared to fair market value of the property which is based on 'ON GOING' concept and in running condition with identical specification as observed

Value of the property offered for immediate sale in distress condition with out considering fluctuation of prevailing market valuer which has tremendous variations is called distress sale value of the property. Thus above can therefore be kept in view while financial appraisal by financial institute/bank considering repaying condition of borrower. Distress Sale Value of the property with the existing usable conditions & specification as describe above is Rs best of our opinion can be considered as

RS. 3240000.00

5 Marketability, Demand & Supply of similar land parcels in the surrounding area
6 Analysis of rates prevailing in nearby areas in the vicinity of the subject property under valuation.
7 Design and Utility of Building structure
8 Type of Construction : General and Special Specification
9 Age, balance economic life of the structure
10 Physical Condition : State of Repairs and Maintenance
11 Marketability of such structures
12 Present Day Replacement Cost Of Equi-Utility Building Structures.
13 Depreciation of Physical Wear and Tear.

The estimation of Market Value of the property is carried out by adopting sales comparison method. The prevailing market rate of comparable property in the vicinity of the property under valuation is considered by conducting verbal local enquiry at the time of visit and as per survey made with property dealers, brokers in the surrounding area as on date of visit. Opinion of market value of the subject property is based on analysis made from all concern data collected during visit. It may be noted that we have not legally verified the title of the property as the same is out of scope of valuers duty.

The following Observation, assumptions and limiting conditions also form the basis of this valuation exercise.

- This Valuation report has been prepared under "Good Faith" on the basis of information / data collected at the time of visit, document & details etc. furnished by the owner / representative of the owner / bank. This valuation is based on our verbal market inquiry where no written evidence are available for comparable sales instances.
- Any matters related to legal title and ownership are outside the preview of this valuation exercise and hence not in a position to comment upon any ownership disputes, possession disputes or any other disputes. The client / bank is nearby advised to take an appropriate legal opinion on the matter while taking any decision on the basis of this report.
- The subject property is visited by our technical person Er. Jagdish Patel
- Valuation is relied on the outcome of analysis made from inquiry made during visit and data collected at time time of visit of our technical person as on date of visit.
- The subject valuation report is prepared on the basis of physical verification at the time of visit refering copy of the documents of the property produced by owner / rep. of owner / bank. Documents made available by owner / rep. of owner / bank for valuation are also attached herewith and our valuation is based on recieved documents.
- For the purpose of this valuation exercise, we have assumed that the subject property has a clear and marketable title and is free from any legal and physical encumbrance, disputes, claims and other statutory liabilities and complies with local development control regulations.
- Assessment and the estimation of residual economic life is based on visual observation. We have not carried out any structural design / structural test with the help of any physical machinery and equipment for the purpose of this exercise.
- The Assumption are made to the best of our knowledge and belief. Reliance is based on the information and documents furnished to us by the representative of the owner / owner / banks.
- The real estate market in India lacks transparency The market is largely fragmented with limited availability of the authentic, credible and reliable data with respect to market transactions. The actual transaction value may be significantly different from the value that is documented in official transactions. We be alive that analysis made by the market survey amongst brokers /developers and other market participants would give a fair representation of the market trends. This valuation is therefore based on our verbal market survey of the real estate market for subject property under valuation.
- As market value / rate is on the basis of local verbal survey/inquiry at the day of visit and as market value/rate is not supported with any written evidence/proof, this value should not be considered where written proof is required to justify the value in this valuation report.
- The Valuation report submitted should not be held responsible if value mentioned in valuation report differ after date of valuation for the reasons beyond the scope of valuer.
- Valuation is very much subjective which may differ from person to person as matter of opinion which is based on personal perception and observation. It may be significantly influenced by adverse parameters like legal, title or ownership, encumbrance issues etc. We reserve our rights to alter the conclusions of this report if any such issues are brought to our knowledge at a later date.

- The subject valuation exercise is based on prevailing market dynamics as on the date of valuation and does not take into account any unforeseeable developments which could impact the same in the future.
