Indore traders to...

Transactions will be conducted exclusively in cash.

Chamber president Ramesh Khandelwal said the trading community had always supported the government and its policies but opposed imposing charges that did not contribute to any Government of India fund.

He said traders were already operating on slim profit margins and additional MDR charges would severely affect their businesses.

Khandelwal clarified that traders would stop accepting UPI payments from the day the government implemented MDR charges.

The chamber urged the government to abandon the proposal, arguing that imposing additional transaction costs would undermine its objective of achieving a 100% digital economy.

Khandelwal suggested that the government should instead subsidise the costs incurred by banks processing digital transactions, as it does under various other schemes.

The chamber maintained that traders supported digital payments but opposed bearing additional financial burdens through MDR charges.

The proposed boycott would involve removing QR codes from shops and informing customers that only cash payments would be accepted.

HC rejects 27% OBC...

The court also directed recruitment agencies, including the Madhya Pradesh Public Service Com-mission (MPPSC) and MP Employees Selection Board, to complete appointments of unreserved category candidates against the 13% withheld posts within three months.

According to the order, appointments of OBC candidates made before Sept 29, 2022, will remain protected. However, appointments made after that date exceeding the 14% reservation limit will be treated as null and void to the extent of the additional 13%. The court directed that unreserved category candidates be appointed against these posts.

The controversy dates back to 2018, when the Congress government came to power in Madhya Pradesh. Then Chief Minister Kamal Nath announced an increase in OBC reservation to 27%.

The Kamal Nath cabinet subsequently approved the proposal, following which the Governor prom-ulgated an ordinance on March 8, 2019. Multiple petitions were filed by both ruling and opposition sides challenging the decision. The mat-ter subsequently reached the Supreme Court, which directed the High Court to hear the petitions collectively.

In February 2026, the Supreme Court remanded a batch of appeals concerning the 27% OBC reser-vation to the Madhya Pradesh High Court for adjudication. Advocate general Prashant Singh said the High Court had dismissed all petitions concerning the 27% OBC reservation. He said the court had ruled that no extraordinary circumstances justified ex-ceeding the 50% ceiling. Singh further said recruitment against the withheld 13% posts would be completed within three months, while appointments made before September 2022 would remain protected.

Rahul: Prez seeks 'vote...

It also sought a review of elections held over the past two years.

The meeting followed three days of Opposition protests against the Election Commission's handling of the SIR exercise. Before meeting Murmu, Opposition MPs marched from Parliament towards Rashtrapati Bhavan.

Kharge accused the BJP-led government of shielding Kumar despite alleged objections raised by two Election Commissioners during internal deliberations. "Gyanesh Kumar is a small fish, but behind him are Modi-Shah and their government," he said.

The controversy intensified after reports that Election Commissioners Sukhbir Singh Sandhu and Vivek Joshi had recorded objections on several occasions over 10 months, largely concerning SIR-related decisions and orders. The Election Commission has maintained that differences of opinion are normal in institutional deliberations and that its decisions follow statutory procedures.

The delegation included Trinamool Congress chief Mamata Banerjee, CPI(M) general secretary M.A. Baby, CPI leader D. Raja, Jammu and Kashmir Chief Minister Omar Abdullah and RJD leader Tejashwi Yadav, among others. The Opposition said its agitation would continue.

SVAMITVA scheme...

In the last few days, the government had cracked the whip on agitating patwaris by terminating the services of several probationer patwaris and suspending a large number of patwaris. Now, as per the compromise, all such action would be declared null and void.

SC concerned over...

He alleged that the administration failed to take preventive measures despite receiving advance information about disease outbreaks.

The court expressed concern over the continuing deaths and issued notices to the Centre and three states on the petition.

PANIC? | Centre seals Delhi borders, shuts Metro and Internet, cancels trains, deploys 15,000 police, 25,000 central forces personnel ahead of CJP protest today

Capital in clampdown mode

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar
NEW DELHI

The Delhi police on Friday told its personnel to "prepare for the storm" as the national capital went on high alert ahead of Saturday's proposed protest by the Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) at Jantar Mantar against SIR of electoral rolls and to seek the resignation of Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar.

Apart from nearly 15,000 Delhi police personnel, nearly 25,000 central force personnel would also be deployed to prevent the protest for which permission was denied by New Delhi range police on Friday.

The Delhi police denied permission for the October 10 protest citing public safety, law-and-order and traffic concerns, as well as alleged non-compliance with directions during an earlier protest. It also pointed out that the notice was submitted at the last minute rather than the required 10 days in advance under official guidelines. Earlier, CJP co-convener Saurav Das had on October 7 submitted an intimation letter and application to the Delhi Police regarding the planned demonstration.

What is this fear? Why are you so scared? You are scared of the youth in the country. You shut down trains, you shut down Metro, what should one do?

Abhijeet Dipke, CJP founder

Multiple train cancellations hit passengers

Several Delhi-bound trains passing through Haryana, Punjab and Chandigarh have been cancelled ahead of Saturday's CJP protest, disrupting travel plans. Services affected include Shatabdi, Jan Shatabdi and passenger trains. Passengers at stations including Jammu, New Delhi and Kanpur complained of inconvenience, saying cancellations, diversions and traffic restrictions had left many stranded or forced them to take alternative routes.

SC opposes blanket Metro curbs, seeks new protest venue

Court asks Centre to reconsider restrictions on 57 Metro stations and train cancellations

PTI
NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Friday directed the Centre to ensure there was no complete prohibition on Metro and railway services in Delhi on Oct 10, while asking it to consider an alternative venue to Jantar Mantar for peaceful protests.

A bench comprising Chief Justice of India Surya Kant, Justice Joymalya Bagchi and Justice V Mohana was hearing a plea challenging restrictions on 57 Metro stations and train cancellations ahead of protests called by the Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) and student organisations against Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar.

The bench said preventive measures must be proportionate and should not inconvenience ordinary commuters.

Solicitor general Tushar Mehta assured the court that authorities would reconsider restrictions and regulate services appropriately.

The court also directed authorities to publicise revised transport arrangements and review road barricading.

Separately, the bench suggested identifying a protest venue equipped with basic amenities.

Mehta said the Centre would consider the proposal, supported by senior advocate Kapil Sibal.

Advocate Prashant Bhushan suggested Ramlila Maidan as an alternative after police denied permission for demonstrations at Jantar Mantar.

The CJI cited nearby government residences, inadequate toilets and difficulties in providing emergency ambulance access.

The bench left the final decision to the competent authority.

Wrestlers' appeal deferred

NEW DELHI

A Delhi court on Friday adjourned the hearing on an appeal filed by four women wrestlers challenging the acquittal of former Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) president Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh and former WFI assistant secretary Vinod Tomar in an alleged sexual harassment and intimidation case.

BJP leader Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh arrives at Delhis Rouse Avenue Court, in New Delhi

Special Judge Dig Vinay Singh of the Rouse Avenue Courts granted more time to the respondents and listed the matter for further hearing on Oct 28.

Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh was physically present before the Rouse Avenue Court's sessions court on Friday.

The appeal has been filed against the Aug 3 judgment of the trial court, which acquitted Brij Bhushan and Tomar after holding that the prosecution had failed to establish the charges against them beyond a reasonable doubt.

The four women wrestlers have contended in their appeal that the trial court's judgment is not sustainable in law .

The appeal also challenges Vinod Tomar's acquittal in relation to the allegation of criminal intimidation under Section 506 Part I of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) levelled by one of the complainants.

Human rights award for Umar Khalid

FPJ News Service
NEW DELHI

Activist Umar Khalid, who has been in jail for six years, has won the 2026 Front Line Defenders Award for Human Rights Defenders at Risk for his work defending the rights of students, minorities and citizens. He was named the winner from Asia, the organisation announced in a statement on Thursday, October 8.

"Umar Khalid is the 2026 Asia winner of the Front Line Defenders Award," the organisation said. Front Line Defenders said Khalid had been jailed for his leadership in the peaceful and democratic movement against amendments to India's citizenship laws, which it described as unconstitutional and anti-Muslim.

The organisation said the law threatened to disproportionately deprive Muslims of documentation and legal status amid growing Hindu nationalism.

Israel to honour Indian pilot with Presidential Award for Civilian Heroism
