

NER Trek-1 Day 2: NCC cadets explore survival skills, teamwork through culinary exchange

ITANAGAR, Oct 13: 1 Arunachal Pradesh Battalion NCC under the aegis of NCC Group Headquarter (Bravo), Tezpur conducted the Survival Day activity as part of the NER Trek-1 for NCC cadets. 550 NCC cadets from 5 different Directorates (NER Dte, West Bengal & Sikkim Dte, Bihar & Jharkhand Dte, Odisha Dte, Madhya Pradesh & Chhattisgarh Dte) are participating in the camp. As a part of the ongoing camp, a Cultural Exposition and Survival Day Programme was planned.

State Minister of Education PD Sona, graced the occasion and was accorded a warm welcome and a memento was presented commemorating the occasion of Survival Day training of the Rising Sun Trek (NER Trek-1) by the Commanding Officer, 1 APBn NCC Colonel Samudra Vijay Sarma, on behalf of NCC cadets.

The Education Minister interacted with the cadets motivating them and highlighted the importance of physical activities, resilience and teamwork in overall personality development of the cadets. He also highlighted the crucial role played by NCC in fostering national integration and promoting cultural awareness. Such initiatives provide the cadets with an opportunity to experience the rich cultural heritage and diversity of the North Eastern Region. He also emphasised and lauded the strong sense of patriotism amongst the people residing in the border states like Arunachal Pradesh who were more patriotic. A cultural exposition was planned wherein the local villagers showcased their traditional attires to the NCC cadets. It was with an opportunity for the NCC cadets of different states to interact with the villagers and learn about the cultural heritage of the local tribes.

The Survival Day activities commenced wherein cadets formed groups and participated in the Crew Cooking Competition and Tent Pitching competition. These activities were designed to test the endurance, resourcefulness and teamwork of the NCC cadets in challenging outdoor conditions. The event was aimed at taking learning beyond the conventional camp environment and exposing the cadets to practical skills essential for adaptability and self reliance.

The cadets had the opportunity to explore diverse food traditions of the cadets from different regions including the local cuisine, encouraging the cadets to explore and appreciate the culinary diversity. The cadets presented dishes such as bamboo rice from Arunachal Pradesh, eromba from Manipur, Akhuni chutney from Mizoram, Kosum from Assam, litti chokha from Bihar, pakhal bhat from Odisha, Poha from Madhya Pradesh among others. It was also a way to develop leadership, cooperation, and efficient resource management skills in an enjoyable manner for the cadets. Survival day was planned to make survival training an engaging and experiential learning exercise, while also fostering camaraderie among the cadets from all across the country and upholding the value of national integration. By combining adventure with cultural immersion, Survival day was planned to reinforce the broader objective of NCC building confident, adaptable, responsible and dependable young citizens with an appreciation for India's unity amongst rich diversity. The event gave the cadets a memorable experience to cherish and they profoundly expressed their happiness to have visited Arunachal Pradesh.

DLSA Siang conducts 2nd day of 20-hr mediation training for GBs

PANGIN, Oct 13: The District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Siang district, Pangin, conducted the second day of its 20-hour Mediation Training Programme for Gaon Burahs (GBs) and Gaon Buris (GBis) from various villages of Siang District at the Community Hall, Pangin, with active participation from the participants.

The programme was conducted under the supervision and guidance of Bido Sora, Secretary, DLSA Siang district, to strengthen the role of traditional village authorities in promoting peaceful and amicable dispute resolution at the community level.

The sessions were led by Advocates Dugmo Tali, Kani Tamut and Tapang Tabing, with support from Para Legal Volunteers (PLVs) and staff of the DLSA and the Court.

The second day focused on practical learning through role-play exercises and demonstrations. Participants assumed the roles of mediators and observers to understand the mediation process, with emphasis on neutrality, fairness, effective communication and mutually acceptable settlements.

After lunch, a practical demonstration of a simulated mediation session was conducted to help participants understand how to listen to both parties, facilitate dialogue and reach an amicable resolution.

The programme was productive and informative, equipping participants with practical skills to promote peaceful dispute resolution within their communities.

H-Spring Foundation organises medical camp for Children With Special Needs, distributes assistive devices

PASIGHAT, Oct 13: As part of its welfare initiative for Children with Special Needs (CWSNs), the H-Spring Foundation organised a two-day medical camp on August 28 and 29, 2026, at H-Spring Integrated School, Diking, Pasighat, for the assessment and provision of Ankle Foot Orthoses (AFOs), calipers, artificial limbs and arch support insoles.

During the camp, measurements and casting for AFOs, calipers and artificial limbs were carried out, along with assessments of flat feet to identify beneficiaries requiring arch support insoles. Altogether 23 CWSNs and seven adults were assessed for assistive devices, while one adult was assessed for an artificial limb.

The medical team comprised Manoj Kumar Patra, Prosthetist and Orthotist associated with Jaipur Foot, Guwahati, and Kapong Modi, Neuro-Physiotherapist of H-Spring Foundation, along with Kagang Barman. The team conducted clinical evaluations, gait assessments, mobility assessments and necessary measurements to ensure that the devices would meet the individual needs of the beneficiaries.

Following the clinical assessments and fittings, the Foundation distributed 12 Ankle Foot Orthoses (AFOs) and six insole arch supports today. The AFOs were provided to improve gait alignment, stabilise weak ankles and provide essential weight-bearing support, thereby enhancing the daily mobility of the beneficiaries. The arch support insoles were intended to improve structural balance, absorb shock and reduce discomfort while walking or running.

The initiative aimed to reduce physical barriers, alleviate discomfort and promote greater mobility and independence among children with special needs by providing customized assistive devices and corrective orthotics.

The successful implementation of the initiative was made possible through the collective goodwill and social responsibility of 29 donors. The H-Spring Foundation expressed its sincere gratitude to all contributors and donors for their generous support towards the welfare and rehabilitation of children with special needs.

The Foundation reaffirmed the importance of collective efforts in improving the quality of life of CWSNs and enabling them to lead more comfortable, confident and independent lives.

Bogong Banggo Yameng Kebang submits memorandum to NEIAFMR, seeks action on recruitment, local employment

By Mingkeng Osik

PASIGHAT, Oct 13: Executive members of the Bogong Banggo Yameng Kebang (BBYK) visited the North Eastern Institute of Ayurveda and Folk Medicine Research (NEIAFMR), Pasighat, and submitted a five-point memorandum seeking immediate action on recruitment procedures, appointments and employment-related concerns at the institute.

The memorandum, dated October 13, 2026, was addressed to the Director In-charge of NEIAFMR through the Principal In-charge, Pasighat. The delegation comprised Dangki Ering, Spokesperson-cum-Chairman of the Issue; Tetem Ering, Secretary, IPR; Ojong Rome, Chief Auditor; and Kadum Tamuk, Deputy Speaker of BBYK.

In the memorandum, BBYK urged the institute to conduct all forthcoming recruitment interviews for Groups A, B and C at Pasighat and ensure that the interview notices are also sent to the Arunachal Pradesh State Employment Exchange for wider publicity.

The organisation also called for the appointment of a permanent Director and a permanent administrative-grade officer at the institute from among eligible local candidates. It further demanded the cancellation of the recent appointment orders of the zoologist and the Vice-Principal In-charge, alleging that the appointments raised concerns over nepotism and overlooked the capabilities of local people.

Another key demand was the formulation of a clear policy to safeguard the employment terms and tenure of local staff and retain their services until they attain the age of 60 years. BBYK also sought a plan for the permanent absorption of eligible local contractual employees into Group C posts.

According to the memorandum, BBYK had earlier submitted a representation bearing reference number BBYK 03/17-02-2026, requesting 80 per cent reservation for Group A jobs and complete reservation for Group B and C jobs for the people of Bogong Banggo, citing the community's role as the land donor for the institute. However, the organisation claimed that no action had been initiated on its earlier demands.

The memorandum described the latest submission as its final representation and urged the institute to fulfil the demands within ten days. It warned that failure to respond within the stipulated period could lead to democratic agitation and an indefinite lockdown of the institution.

Copies of the memorandum were also forwarded to the Union Minister of State (Independent Charge) of the Ministry of AYUSH, the Secretary of the Ministry of AYUSH, the Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh, both Members of Parliament representing Arunachal Pradesh's eastern and western constituencies, and the MLA representing the 38th Pasighat East (ST) Assembly Constituency, for their information.
