BJP govt using state machinery to influence civic polls: Jyoti

Jaipur, Sep 25 (Reporter)

Rajasthan Leader of Opposition Tikaram Jyoti on Friday accused the BJP government of using police and administrative machinery to influence the urban local body elections, alleging that it had "crossed all limits". His remarks came as elections for the mayoral posts of Jaipur, Jodhpur and Kota municipal corporations were held on Friday. In a statement, Jyoti alleged that the elections were being conducted under pressure from those in power and through "fear and political hooliganism".

"The BJP government has not only trampled upon democratic norms in the urban local body elections but has crossed all limits of the democratic system in its arrogance of power," he said. Jyoti claimed that police and the administration were applying different standards to BJP and Congress and alleged that the government machinery was being used to help the ruling party gain control of civic bodies. He alleged that using state power to overturn or influence a mandate given by voters amounted to "murder of democracy". The Congress has repeatedly accused the BJP government of misusing police and administrative machinery during elections for the heads of urban local bodies.

Jodhpur fire: Gehlot praises firefighters' courage

Jaipur, Sep 25 (FN Representative)

Former Rajasthan chief minister Ashok Gehlot on Friday visited SMS Hospital here to enquire about the condition of six firefighters who were injured after a chemical container exploded while they were battling a blaze at a factory in Jodhpur. Fourteen fire brigade personnel were injured in the fire at the chemical factory in Jodhpur on Wednesday evening. The firefighters suffered burn injuries when a chemical container suddenly exploded as they were trying to control the blaze. Six of the injured personnel were shifted from Jodhpur's Mahatma Gandhi Hospital to SMS Hospital in Jaipur on Thursday for further treatment. Gehlot spoke to doctors and enquired about the condition of the injured firefighters undergoing treatment at SMS Hospital.

He also spoke to the Jodhpur chief fire officer to get details about the incident. The former chief minister said the firefighters displayed immense courage and saved the lives of more than a dozen people without caring for their own safety. "These personnel displayed indomitable courage and saved the lives of more than a dozen people without caring for their own lives, but were injured when chemical containers suddenly exploded," Gehlot said. He wished the injured firefighters a speedy recovery.

Be guided by 'Nation First' principle: Nabin to youths

Jaipur, Sep 25 (FN Representative)

BJP national president Nitin Nabin on Friday asked youths to keep their vision high, avoid shortcuts and not let failures push them into frustration or to take extreme steps. Interacting with youths at a 'Yuva Samvad' programme at Birla auditorium here, Nabin said young people needed to redefine success and focus not only on becoming successful professionals but also good citizens. "One may become a good engineer or doctor, but becoming a good citizen is more important," Nabin said. He said youths should not be afraid of failure, and should avoid shortcuts in life, as they would not lead them to the right destination. "Life is precious. If you face failure, you should not immediately move in the wrong direction or put your life at stake. If we have been given this life, we should do something meaningful for our parents and for this land," he said. Nabin said the principle of "Nation First" should guide people, followed by the organisation and then the individual. He also called for greater positive participation of youths in politics, saying politics gives direction to the country and leadership was not merely about making policies but also about bringing people together. Referring to India's economic progress, Nabin said the country was once counted among the "Fragile Five" economies but was now among the world's fastest-growing major economies. During the interaction, several young participants shared their views and suggestions, including the positive use of artificial intelligence, keeping youths away from drugs, and the role of youth clubs in schools and colleges in building a developed India by 2047. One participant, Vanishka, said youths should follow their passion and work with dedication to bring recognition to the country.

She also spoke about her experience after receiving the Rajasthan Youth Icon award. Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel Sharma, who also addressed the programme, said youths would have an important role in achieving the goal of a developed India by 2047. He said programmes under the 'Seva Sankalp' initiative were being held from September 17 to October 17. Sharma said Prime Minister Narendra Modi's life and work were an inspiration for youths and the Centre's policies were focused on empowering youths, women, farmers and workers. "Our government is working for the youth. We have formulated policies for them, and not a single paper leak has taken place during our government's tenure," Sharma said. Nabin's interaction with youths was part of his day-long visit to Jaipur, during which he attended several party and public programmes.
