The Hindu Bureau
BENGALURU

Around 50 members of the All India Students' Association (AISA) and social activists were detained by the police on Saturday when they gathered to stage a protest at the Town Hall, demanding the scrapping of the SIR of electoral rolls and the resignation of Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar.

This comes days after protesters against SIR were detained while marching Protesters gathered near the Town Hall, where a heavy police presence and barricades had been put in place to prevent them from holding the demonstration. ALLEN EGENUSE J.

to the office of the CEO, Karnataka. Protesters and journalists were manhandled, drawing sharp criticism, which prompted both Chief Minister D.K.

Shivakumar and Home Minister Priyank Kharge to order a review of the police handling of the protests. The Home Minister said he had told the police not to disrupt peaceful protests.

The protesters gathered near the Town Hall, where a heavy police force had been deployed and barricades erected to prevent them from holding the demonstration. The police bundled the protesters into buses and took them to the CAR Grounds on Mysore Road in Chamarajpet, where they were detained for some time before being released. The protest came after the S.J. Park police rejected the organisers' request to hold a demonstration outside Town Hall, citing High Court guidelines restricting protests and rallies to Freedom Park.

The police said the organisers could hold the protest at Freedom Park after obtaining the necessary permission and complying with the applicable legal requirements.

FSDA inspects sweet-making units

The Hindu Bureau
BENGALURU

The Food Safety Wing of the Department of Food Safety and Drug Administration (FSDA) inspected 100 sweet-manufacturing units and retail outlets across the State on Saturday, the third day of a special drive launched ahead of the festive season.

Officials collected 113 food samples for testing and issued notices to 15 food business operators for violations. The samples have been sent to Government Food Laboratories for analysis to assess their quality and compliance with food safety standards, the department said in a statement.

During inspections on Saturday, officials found deficiencies, including unhygienic conditions in food preparation and storage areas, absence of medical certificates for food-handling personnel and labelling defects.

The three-day drive, conducted from Thursday to Saturday under the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006, and the Food Safety and Standards (Licensing and Registration) Regulations, 2011, covered 286 sweet-manufacturing units and retail outlets across the State. During this period, officials collected a total of 383 food samples and sent them for laboratory analysis. Notices were issued to 40 sweet-manufacturing units and food business operators, while two operators were fined a total of ₹7,000. Officials also seized 30 kg of misbranded khova.

The department said inspections would continue and legal action would be initiated in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations.
