

Haryana govt sets up 141 safe cradle centres to prevent child abandonment

Express News Service
Chandigarh, October 14

THE HARYANA Women and Child Development Department has established 141 Safe Cradle Centres to prevent child abandonment, urging parents and individuals to hand over newborns at these designated facilities if they are unable to care for them.

The department has assured that the identity of anyone handing over a child will be kept strictly confidential.

A government spokesperson on Wednesday said the centres were established at various locations, including child care institutions, Primary Health Centres (PHCs), civil hospitals and other designated institutions. If a Safe Cradle Centre is unavailable in a particular area, a child can also be handed over to the Child Welfare Committee (CWC) constituted in every district, the spokesperson said.

"Confidentiality will enable anyone to ensure the safety of an innocent child without fear or hesitation," the spokesperson said.

The official urged the public not to abandon newborns or children on roads, in deserted places, dustbins, outside hospitals or at any other unsafe location, particularly when parents or caregivers are unable to provide care.

"One wrong step can put an innocent child's life at risk. If any parent or individual is unable to care for a child for any reason, they should hand over the child to these government-established centres instead of abandoning them at unsafe places," the spokesperson said.

Appealing to the public, the official stressed that every child deserves the opportunity for a safe future.

Abducted man escapes after car hits cow on Haryana road; 2 arrested

Gurugram: A 23-year-old man allegedly abducted and assaulted over an old dispute managed to escape after the car in which he was being taken towards Hisar met with an accident when a cow suddenly came in front of the vehicle, police said on Wednesday.

Two accused -- Nitin (20) from Mahendragarh district and Khush alias Manjeet (19) from Jhajjar district -- have been arrested in connection with the case, and two wooden sticks allegedly used in the crime have been recovered from their possession, they said.

Both the accused were currently residing in Gurugram and were arrested from Suncity in Hisar on October 10 and were subsequently remanded in police custody for three days by a court, they said.

According to police, information was received on October 7 that five to six youths travelling in a white Creta car had assaulted a man identified as Roni at Labour Chowk and forcibly taken him away in the vehicle.

A police team reached the spot and inspected the scene. The victim's family was informed, following which his father said he would submit a complaint after discussing the matter with other family members.

On October 8, the victim's father lodged a complaint, stating that his son, Vicky alias Roni, worked as a salesman. A few months earlier, Vicky had a dispute with a youth named Prince over sales-related work. Since then, Prince and his associates had been harbouring a grudge against him and had threatened to kill him, the complaint stated. The complainant further said that Vicky had gone to Garhi in Gurugram to meet a friend around 6 pm on October 7.

At around 10 pm, the friend's call informed him that five to six youths had arrived in a white Creta car at Garhi Labour Chowk around one-and-a-half hours earlier, assaulted Vicky and forcibly abducted him. Based on the complaint, a case was registered under sections the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) at Sector 10 police station in Gurugram, police said. PTI
