

Anthropic AI sent fake murder tip to Philly police

SAN FRANCISCO

An artificial intelligence model developed by Anthropic submitted a fabricated tip about an unsolved homicide to Philadelphia police, authorities said, criticizing the company for taking two months to report the incident.

The Philadelphia Police Department said the false submission was made in July through PhillyUnsolvedMurders.com, a public website where people can share information about unsolved killings.

According to Anthropic's account, as relayed by police, the model was running a test that involved interacting with randomly selected websites when it reached the site and filed false information about an unsolved murder.

The AI model presented itself as someone who might have knowledge of the case.

The incident echoed other recent cases of unintended behavior involving AI models.

Anthropic's breaches have prompted the White House to mandate that AI companies notify and correct security incidents, news outlet Axios reported citing administration officials. AFP

Riyadh airport attacked again, dozens wounded

Panic as Houthis missile strikes for second time in days, dozens reported wounded

RIYADH

YEMEN's Houthis attacked Riyadh's international airport with a missile on Saturday, a diplomatic source told AFP, with dozens reported wounded and a witness describing panic in the terminal.

Saudi authorities did not confirm any new attack or evacuation, but one witness reported hearing an explosion while waiting to board a flight, and another said they saw a strike that left people wounded.

A source at a local hospital said five people were in intensive care after being wounded at the airport, saying "dozens of people were injured" in all. The relative of one injured person said they had been wounded in the shoulders and arms by shattered glass, and had been taken to hospital.

Three witnesses confirmed people being evacuated from the airport. “Houthis are attacking civilian targets. Riyadh airport is a civilian target,” the diplomatic source told AFP, saying the airport was hit by “a missile around 3 pm” (1200 GMT). Yemen’s Houthis announced no fresh strikes on Saturday.

Admissions by Saudi authorities of strikes hitting civilian targets are relatively rare, with officials issuing few statements on Houthi attacks in recent weeks.

Kuwait Airways cancels flights

Kuwait Airways said on Saturday that it had cancelled two flights in and out of Riyadh, citing the closure of the airport and the "security situation" there. "Kuwait Airways announces that flight KU775 from Kuwait to Riyadh and flight KU776 from Riyadh to Kuwait have been cancelled today, Saturday, October 10, 2026, due to the closure of the airport as a result of the security situation," the statement said. AFP

MOSCOW/ KYIV

RUSSIAN President Vladimir Putin has told US President Donald Trump about Iran's position on a possible West Asia-peace deal, the Kremlin said on Saturday. The Kremlin said Tehran's stance was relayed in a phone call held between the two leaders on Friday. It did not say how Trump responded, nor elaborate on Iran's position.

“In coordination with the Iranian president, Putin conveyed the Iranian side’s views on a possible resolution to the conflict to Trump,” Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said on Saturday, according to Russia’s state RIA news agency.

The Kremlin also said that Trump conveyed his ideas about how to de-escalate the war in Ukraine to Vladimir Putin during a phone call on Friday. Putin received the proposals “with understanding”, the Kremlin said, without elaborating on what the proposals were or the Russian president's response.

Kyiv slams US-Russia deal

Meanwhile, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said

on Saturday that Russia was expressing its “thanks” for a diesel deal agreed with the United States by attacking Ukraine, after fresh Russian attacks killed 15 people, according to authorities. The deal, which US President Donald Trump announced on Friday would see Moscow release large amounts of diesel onto global markets in exchange for sanctions relief. Zelenkyy told reporters on Friday that the deal was “unworthy of our partners” and described it as a “weak decision”.

Embarrassing deal: US Senator

US Senator Richard Blumenthal called Donald Trump's deal with Vladimir Putin to buy Russian diesel an "embarrassment", saying it made the US complicit in Russia's war on Ukraine. AFP/PTI

Taiwan boosts defence spending to deter war amid rising China pressure

Taipei: Taiwan aims to "deter war" by increasing its defence spending, the democratic island's leader said on Saturday, as China uses military pressure to assert its territorial claims. Taiwan's 23 million people live under the constant threat of an attack by China, which insists the island is part of its territory and has threatened to use force to annex it. "Our aim by increasing investment in national defence is not to provoke, rather, it is to deter war," President Lai Ching-te said in a speech to celebrate Taiwan's National Day. AF/
