Tirupati Collector urges corporates to boost rural skill development

The Hindu Bureau
TIRUPATI

District Collector S. Venkateswar has appealed to corporates to assume higher responsibilities in developing rural communities in their immediate vicinities. He was speaking at the valedictory session of the skill-training programme organised by Electrosteel Castings Limited (ECL), at its plant near Srikalahasti on Tuesday. As part of its CSR, the company conducted training in tailoring, fashion designing, computer literacy for 100 students.. Plumbing and electrician courses were also organised for the youth.

Mr. Venkateswar presented completion certificates to the trainees and prizes to exceptional performers. He also gave away sewing machines to the top three candidates excelling in tailoring and fashion designing courses.

Appreciating ECL for upskilling the rural community, he appealed to all corporate entities to take inspiration and foster growth within their surrounding. ECL executive director Suresh Khandelwal said the objective of the initiative was to facilitate self-employment in Srikalahasti and surrounding regions.
