

To prevent crowd, rlys stops platform ticket sale

Salem Railway Division will not issue platform tickets in Coimbatore, Tiruppur stations for two days | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Coimbatore

IN a bid to prevent non-passenger crowd from entering railway platforms, the Salem Railway Division has stopped issuing platform tickets in Coimbatore and Tiruppur railway stations on Tuesday and Wednesday. The decision was taken since railways is operating many special trains to clear Deepavali rush. Officials said allowing relatives and friends of passengers will lead to overcrowding of platforms and may put travellers to inconvenience. "Passengers and general public are requested to cooperate with the railway administration in ensuring safety of all. Those accompanying passengers need not go till the platforms. They can bid them farewell at the concourse area. Similarly, those who come to receive passengers may wait at the concourse. We have stopped issuing platform tickets to facilitate smooth movement of passengers and ensure their safety," said a press release from the railways. On an average as many as 60,715 passengers are using the Coimbatore railway station per day. Similarly, 24,324 passengers use trains in Tiruppur. The railways issues 1,116 platform tickets in Coimbatore railway station and 661 in Tiruppur railway station.

THE Coimbatore Medical College Hospital (CMCH) opened a special burns ward on Tuesday to treat patients who sustain injuries while bursting crackers during Deepavali. The new unit is functioning in the JICA new building at Coimbatore Government Medical College Hospital. It has 11 intensive care beds and 20 general beds. A burn surgery unit operates here. The plastic surgery department is staffed 24 hours a day by doctors and general surgeons under the direction of the CM. A separate unit is being implemented for burns that occur during this Diwali. The general public is requested to take advantage of this." The hospital has also issued a list of guidelines that need to be followed for a safe festival.

Gang of five smuggles illicit liquor, arrested

TIRUPPUR: Tiruppur city police arrested a five member gang for smuggling illicit liquor from Namakkal. Seven litres of liquor and a car was seized. The suspects were identified as Krishnakumar, (38), Dhyaneswaran, (39), Subramani, (40), Premkumar, (37), and Sakthi, (32), of Tiruppur. Based on a tip-off, Prohibition Enforcement Wing (PEW) police conducted a vehicle inspection on Dharapuram road on Monday. They stopped a car and questioned the five and came to know that they were carrying illicit liquor. "The five had gone to Tiruchengode in Namakkal to attend a wedding. There some friends gave them the liquor," a police officer said. ENS

SPIKE IN CASES

20-member spl team to arrest cyber criminals

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Coimbatore

THE district police have formed 20 special teams and have begun a combing operation to catch hold of cyber-criminals across the district. The move comes after a spike in number of cybercrime cases.

Sources said that cybercrime cases have been increasing drastically everyday.

Many people are losing a lot of money through online cybercrimes, such as deceiving people by sending goods in return to send money online, by giving job opportunities after contacting them via Whatsapp or even by offering more profit if they invest in a business among many others.

However, it is difficult to catch cyber criminals and for this, the cybercrime police is conducting thorough investigations and arresting culprits in some cases. However, many criminals are still free. Following this, District Superintendent of Police Karthikeyan has issued an order to arrest the criminals soon.

In view of this, a special force was formed on Monday under the leadership of 20 sub-inspectors in the district. A total of 20 special teams have been formed. This special police force began conducting a special combing operation to catch cyber criminals in regions such as Pollachi, Valparai, Mettupalayam, Karumathampatti, Perur, Sullur, Kinathukkadavu.

College student harms self believing he had superpowers, injured

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Coimbatore

A private engineering college student at Myleripalayam in Coimbatore caused harm to himself on Monday after he allegedly believed that he had superpowers. He fractured his legs, hands, and other parts and has been admitted to private hospital for treatment.

Police said A Prabhu (20) from Mekkur village near Perundurai in Erode district, is a third-year B. Tech Artificial Intelligence and Data Science student. On Monday around 6.30 pm when he was chatting with his hostel inmates, he allegedly tried to harm himself and sustained severe injuries and was rushed to a private hospital near the college. Later, he was shifted to another private hospital. Later, a case was registered at the Chettipalayam police station.

During preliminary investigation, it was revealed that Prabhu believed that he had superpowers and he had reportedly shared this with his hostel inmates, but they did not take him seriously. Meanwhile, to prove his point, he caused harm to himself.
