Contaminated water real concern at Maha Kumbh

Biswajeet Banerjee
PRAYAGRAJ

The National Green Tribunal (NGT) was apprised of water contamination concerns in Prayagraj during the ongoing Mahakumbh, as per a report submitted by the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB). The findings indicated that several monitoring points failed to meet the required water quality standards for bathing, particularly in terms of faecal coliform levels.

According to CPCB guidelines, faecal coliform—a key indicator of sewage pollution—should not exceed 2,500 units per 100 ml of water. However, multiple locations in Prayagraj reported higher-than-permissible levels, raising concerns about the impact on pilgrims who take ritual baths in the Ganga and Yamuna.

The tribunal, led by NGT Chairperson Justice Prakash Shrivastava, alongside Judicial Member Justice Sudhir Agarwal and Expert Member A Senthil Vel, reviewed the matter as part of ongoing efforts to curb sewage discharge into these rivers. During the proceedings, the bench noted that the CPCB had submitted a report dated February 3, highlighting instances of non-compliance.

"The water quality at various monitored locations failed to meet the primary bathing standards due to excessive faecal coliform. Given the influx of devotees during the Mahakumbh, especially on significant bathing days, the contamination levels are further exacerbated," the CPCB report stated.

Additionally, the bench criticized the Uttar Pradesh Pollution Control Board (UPPCB) for not fully complying with its earlier directive to submit a detailed

10-year-old boy kidnapped, murdered; policeman held

LATEHAR

In a shocking incident, a 10-year-old boy named Kshitij was kidnapped and brutally murdered in Jharkhand's Latehar district. The accused, identified as Chandrakishore Yadav, a policeman, has been arrested in connection with the heinous crime, officials said.

The tragic event unfolded when Kshitij mysteriously disappeared from his home at 8 p.m. on Sunday. The following day, his mutilated body was discovered in the bushes behind Netarhat Hospital. The boy had been subjected to extreme brutality -- both of his eyes were gouged out, his arm was broken in several places, and he had been stabbed multiple times in the abdomen and neck with a sharp weapon.

Kshitij's father, Prabhat Kumar, a bus agent and grocery shop owner, had a prior dispute with Chandrakishore Yadav. This altercation occurred when Yadav was undergoing training at the police's Junglewar Fair School in Netarhat.

Following the training, Yadav was sent back to Bokaro. During the investigation, police learned that Yadav had travelled to Netarhat on a bike on Sunday night. Based on this information and other suspicions, the police arrested him from Bokaro.

Sex assault: Asst school headmaster arrested

Chennai: A 58-year-old assistant headmaster of a government high school in Arimalalm block in Pudukottai district was arrested on Monday (February 18, 2025) under the POCSO Act on charges of sexually assaulting a few girl students in the school.

The arrest was made following an inquiry conducted by the District Child Protection Officer and the District Social Welfare Officer on Monday, acting on complaints from the affected girls.

The charge against the assistant headmaster was that he had been indulging in the crime for nearly two months, said official sources. Following the inquiry by the two officials, a complaint was lodged by a case worker of the District Child Protection Unit, Pudukottai and the assistant headmaster was arrested.

The Tirumayam All Women Police has registered a case against the Assistant Headmaster.

Himanta afraid of losing CM chair after 2026 assembly polls: Gogoi

GUWAHATI

Congress leader Gaurav Gogoi on Tuesday said Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma is afraid he will lose his post and will have to face justice from the people of the state after the 2026 assembly elections.

On Monday, the Assam government constituted a Special Investigation Team (SIT) to investigate a case against Pakistani national Ali Tauqeer Sheikh for his social media comments on India's internal affairs. Sarma had alleged that Gogoi's wife Elizabeth Gogoi had worked with Sheikh in Pakistan.

"The BJP government in Assam can conduct their enquiry. Every Assamese person knows the real reason behind recent developments. Himanta Biswa Sarma is afraid that he will lose his chair and will have to face justice from the people of Assam after the 2026 assembly elections," Gogoi said in a post on X. He alleged at a press conference on Monday that Sarma had been changing his stance every day. "(But) we are clear from the first day and know where we stand. Earlier, the chief minister had attacked me and I was the villain. But since yesterday, he has made me the victim," he said.

5 youths arrested for 'blackmailing' school girls in Rajasthan

Manish Godha
JAIPUR

After the case came to light, people demanded the arrest of the accused

Five youths have been arrested and two minors detained on the charges of blackmailing of school girls and pressing them to recite Kalma, keep fasts, and embrace Islam. The incident happened in Bijaynagar town of Beawar, Rajasthan.

They were arrested after FIRs were filed by parents of the victims. The family members of the minor girls reported the matter to the Vijayanagar Police Station and submitted a complaint.

They stated that the culprits had been pressurising their daughters to talk to them. They were given mobile phones and were even forced to make their underage friends to chat with the offenders who were sexually exploiting them. The victims were made false promises of erasing the explicit material if they introduced them to other girls. The accused threatened and pushed the girls to meet with them.

"The victims were also given false promises of erasing the explicit material if they introduce them to other girls. The accused threatened and pushed the girls to meet with them. They are trapping our daughters in their net. The same is happening with other girls in the area as well. They forced them to go to cafes and wear clothes of their choice," the complainants shared. Police station incharge Karan Singh said that three cases have been registered in this case and five youths Rihan Mohammad (20), Sohail Mansuri (19), Lukman alias Soheb (20), Armaan Pathan (19) and Sahil Qureshi (19) have been arrested while two minors have been detained. After the case came to light, people demanded the arrest of the accused. Afterwards, trhree cases were registered and an inquiry was initiated.
