Missile, drone attacks on Jammu airport neutralised; unmanned aerial vehicles trying to bomb parts of Rajasthan, Punjab and elsewhere shot; US urges immediate de-escalation

@ Srinagar/ Chandigarh/New Delhi

TENSIONS between India and Pakistan escalated on Thursday evening after Pakistani drone attacks were reported across parts of Jammu, Punjab and Rajasthan. The Indian air defence system responded swiftly, intercepting multiple drones, triggering air raid sirens and enforcing blackouts in border towns.

As the tension ratcheted up in the evening, US secretary of state Marco Rubio spoke to External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and called for "immediate de-escalation". He offered "support for direct dialogue between India and Pakistan and encouraged continued efforts to improve communications," US state department said. Jaishankar said India "will firmly counter any attempts at escalation".

OPERATION SINDOOR

The chain of events began with Pakistan launching missiles and kamikaze drones targeting the Jammu airport and the civilian areas around, which also houses the Indian Air Force station. All missiles and drones were neutralised.

Soon after, explosions were reported in Punjab, followed by Pakistani shelling near Pathankot and Kupwara. Moments later, Pakistani drones were seen being intercepted over Rajasthan's Jaisalmer, with visible explosions and flashes lighting up the sky.

The situation quickly escalated as civil administrations across northern India moved into action. Hoshiarpur in Punjab declared an immediate blackout after loud explosions were heard. "The blackout will continue till further orders," said Deputy Commissioner Aashika Jain, confirming that it was enforced following instructions from Air Force authorities. Amritsar, Chandigarh, Mohali, Panchkula, and parts of Barmer in Rajasthan soon followed with similar blackout orders. Debris believed to be from missiles was recovered from Kumahi Devi village near Hoshiarpur's Talwara, officials said.

"Military stations of Jammu, Pathankot and Udhampur in proximity to the International Boundary in J&K were targeted by Pakistan using missiles and drones. No losses. Threat neutralised by #IndianArmedForces as per SoP with kinetic & non-kinetic means," the Army said.

As many as eight missiles from Pakistan directed at Satwari, Samba, RS Pura and Arnia across the border were neutralised. "More hostile drones were sighted at multiple places along western front and were being engaged by the air defence systems," Army sources said.

Earlier in the day, India had targeted Pakistani air defence systems, including one in Lahore, in response to overnight drone and missile attacks launched by Pakistan. These strikes came just a day after India carried out Operation Sindoor, targeting terror infrastructures in Pakistan, following the April 22 Pahalgam terrorist attack that killed 26 civilians.

Meanwhile, in Gujarat's Kachchh district, border villages plunged into darkness following blackouts. Blackouts were enforced across the Bhuj region amid anticipation of cross-border attacks.

Security agencies remain on high alert, and civil defence protocols are being rolled out across multiple states bordering Pakistan as the military standoff continues to intensify. There were no immediate reports of any casualty or damage from the Pakistani attack.

Pak to get firm response, Iran, Saudi told

JAYANTH JACOB @ New Delhi

Cabinet nod for Amaravati as State capital

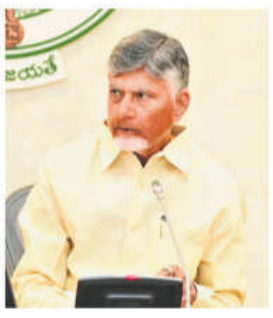

S VISWANATH @ Vijayawada

THE State Cabinet meeting, held under the chairmanship of Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu, approved Amaravati as the capital city of Andhra Pradesh. A resolution naming Amaravati as the capital of the residual state of Andhra Pradesh will be sent to the Centre to amend the AP State Reorganisation Act.

Sections 2 and 5 of the AP State Reorganisation Act mention that Hyderabad would serve as the joint capital for ten years following the State bifurcation. After this period, Hyderabad would become the capital of Telangana, and the newly constructed capital by Andhra Pradesh would become its own.

However, the Act did not specify the name of Andhra Pradesh's new capital. Therefore, the Cabinet has decided to send a resolution to the Centre to officially include Amaravati as the capital city of Andhra Pradesh.

Similar to the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, the area governed by the Capital Region Development Authority (CRDA) will form part of Amaravati.

Trupthi Canteen for women's growth

State launches Trupthi Canteen in Nellore to boost women's livelihoods, promote sustainability

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Nellore

THE State government has launched its first Trupthi Canteen in Nellore city as a pilot initiative to empower women economically and promote eco-friendly practices. Minister of Municipal Administration and Urban Development (MAUD) P Narayana said the project, launched under the Smart Street Programme in partnership with the SaRa Project, is a model for similar ventures across Andhra Pradesh. "This first-of-its-kind canteen, launched in Nellore, aims to generate income for women while offering nutritious food to the public," he said.

A joint initiative by the Mission for Elimination of Poverty in Municipal Areas (MEPMA) and the SaRa Project, the Tripti Canteen was inaugurated at Atmakur Bus Stand Centre. Encouraged by its initial success and growing income levels, MEPMA now plans to scale up the model across the district. Each unit operates from a 20x12 container provided by the government and consists of four women trained in kitchen and business operations. These canteens use electric appliances powered by solar energy under the Surya Ghar Scheme, aligning with environmental sustainability goals. The State aims to establish 700 Trupthi Canteens, engaging over 3,000 MEPMA-affiliated women. Each canteen will provide direct employment to four women and create additional indirect employment, with each entrepreneur expected to earn at least ₹30,000 per month.

In Nellore, the canteen serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner prepared by experienced cooks, offering both quality and affordability. The initiative also helps create sustainable livelihoods for self-help group women.

MEPMA officials estimate a turnover of ₹6.39 lakh for each canteen, with expenses amounting to ₹3.92 lakh, resulting in a net income of ₹2.46 lakh. Meal prices remain competitive with the open market, ensuring accessibility.

MEPMA Project Director Radhamma, Nellore, said, "This is the first Trupthi Canteen established in the state, right here in Nellore. It is generating good income. We plan to expand to more key junctions in the city, followed by canteens across corporations and municipalities."

The total investment per canteen is estimated at ₹16.40 lakh. Of this, the four women partners contribute ₹3.10 lakh each, totalling ₹12 lakh, while MEPMA and the SaRa Project fund the remaining amount.

Report sought from Centre, TN on deporting immigrants

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Madurai

THE Madurai Bench of Madras High Court on Thursday sought a report from the central and state governments on the steps taken by them to deport illegal immigrants who are staying in Tamil Nadu.

A vacation bench comprising justices M Dhandapani and R Sakthivel gave the direction on a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) filed by KK Ramesh of Madurai seeking a direction to the government to take action against foreign nationals, especially those from Pakistan, Bangladesh, Myanmar and Africa, who are illegally staying in India.

Citing media reports, petitioner claimed that nearly 46,000 foreign nationals are illegally staying in Tamil Nadu despite expiry of their visa. He alleged that such persons collude with political party leaders and involve in illegal activities like transporting drugs, weapons, etc.

The judges orally observed that though the court issued a series of directions a few years ago to tackle the issue, the government has not taken any steps and remains a silent spectator. They issued notice to the Union Ministries and directed them to file a report at the next hearing on June 9.
