In Gurgaon, 2 arrested for killing 20-yr-old, hiding body in school bathroom

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
GURGAON, AUGUST 8

THREE DAYS after a 20-year-old's body was found dumped in a government school washroom in Jatauli, the Gurgaon Police on Thursday night arrested two individuals in connection with the alleged murder.

The deceased was identified as Karn alias Tinda, a resident of Jatauli. The accused has been identified as Akash alias Gullu, Shiv Kumar, both 21-year-old residents of Jatauli village in Pataudi. A police spokesperson claimed on Friday that the incident was a case of murder.

The case came to light on August 4, after the Haileymandi police outpost under the Pataudi police station received information about the body in the school. A police team soon reached the school in Jatauli and found the body of a man with multiple injury marks. The body was then sent for a postmortem examination.

"A written complaint from a chemistry teacher at the Government Senior Secondary School stated that bloodstains and drag marks were noticed in the primary school's verandah on August 4, leading to the discovery of the body in the washroom", the spokesperson added.

The teacher reported to the police that the body had injury marks. Based on the complaint, a case was registered at Pataudi police station under relevant sections.

The probe was conducted under the supervision of Deputy Commissioner of Police (Manesar) Deepak, and led by Sub-Inspector Satyaprakash, in-charge of Haileymandi police outpost.

During initial questioning, the accused revealed that Akash used a pair of scissors while Shiv Kumar used a stone to commit the alleged murder.

"The duo then hid the body in the school washroom. The police recovered the scissors and stone used in the crime based on the suspect's statements," the spokesperson added.

He further added that the police are conducting a thorough interrogation to ascertain the motive behind the murder and are also probing the involvement of other individuals.

One injured in encounter with anti-narcotic task force

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
LUDHIANA, AUGUST 8

A POLICE raid in village Gaosian Khan Muhammad turned into a fierce encounter on Friday when members of a drug trafficking gang allegedly opened fire at a joint team of Anti-Narcotics Task Force (ANTF) from Jalandhar and Ludhiana Rural Police.

Police said that a miscreant was injured in the exchange of fire, while the key accused, who was the prime target of the police, managed to escape with his aides. The injured has been admitted to Dayanand Medical College and Hospital (DMCH), Ludhiana. The arrested accused was identified as Davinder Singh alias Babbu of Village Akkuwal.

According to officials, the ANTF team had reached the village in search of Sunny of Village Vehra of Mehatpur of Jalandhar, wanted in a drug trafficking case. Acting on a tip-off, police moved inside the residence of Kuldeep Singh of Keepa of Village Gorsian Khan Mohammad, where Sunny was believed to be hiding. As soon as the team attempted to nab him, Sunny, Kuldeep, and two accomplices escaped from the back door. When the police team gave them a chase the accused allegedly fired at the police.

Police retaliated, and a bullet struck Davinder Singh, leaving him seriously injured. He was rushed to DMC Hospital for treatment. In the confusion, the other three suspects managed to escape. Ludhiana Rural SSP Ankur Gupta said that multiple police teams, including those from Jagraon, are in pursuit of the absconding accused. "We have strong leads and all three will be arrested soon," he assured.

Mumbai Police probing gang connections of Haryana men held with arms

Mumbai: The Crime Branch of Mumbai Police is investigating if the five men from Haryana arrested with weapons in the city had connections with criminal gangs operating in northern states, an official said on Friday.

A local court has remanded them in police custody till August 12, he said. The Anti Extortion Cell of the Crime Branch arrested Sunny Nareshkumar (26), Ravi Angrez (23), Rahul Prithvi Singh (27), Anuj Kuldeep Kumar (28) and Aditya Kaushik (23) from Kalachouki area with three pistols, one desi ₹katta' (country-made firearm) and 51 live rounds on Tuesday after laying a trap.

The accused, who claimed to be in the city to sell the weapons to possible customers, were found to have criminal records in Haryana, including cases registered under the Arms Act and offenses such as assault, the official said. Police are investigating whether they have any links with organized gangs operating in Haryana, Punjab and other parts of the country, he said. PTI
