CITY OF NAWABS GOES GLOBAL AS UNESCO HIGH-FIVES ITS CUISINE

Lucknow has been inducted into UNESCO's Creative Cities Network under the 'Gastronomy' category, a testimony of its culinary heritage

LUCKNOW IS A HAVEN FOR FOOD, SAYS U.N.

UNESCO Director-General Audrey Azoulay designated 58 cities as new members of the CCN "for their commitment to championing creativity as a driver of sustainable urban development". The UN in India in a post on X said, "From mouth-watering Galouti Kabab to Awadhi Biryani, desserts like Makhan Malai and so much more — Lucknow is a haven for food..."

MAKE A TRIP FOR ITS UNIQUENESS: PM MODI

- Lucknow isn't just about its kebabs. If the ever-inviting, rather demure, creamy "Malai Gilori" is an all-time favourite, the mouth-watering "paani puri" or "paani ke batashe", are favourites too
- "I am glad UNESCO recognised this aspect of Lucknow. I call upon people to visit it to discover its uniqueness," PM Modi said on X

Women among 9 people killed in AP temple crush

No police permission sought for the event

USHA PERI @ Srikakulam

NINE devotees, eight of them women and a 13-year-old boy, died in a stampede at the Sri Venkateswara Swamy Temple in Kasibugga, Srikakulam district, on Saturday. The crush occurred when a large number of people thronged the temple for darshan on the first Ekadasi of Karthika Masam, considered auspicious. Two persons are reportedly in a critical condition, while about 15 others suffered minor injuries. All the victims hailed from nearby villages and mandals.

₹15 lakh ex gratia for victims announced

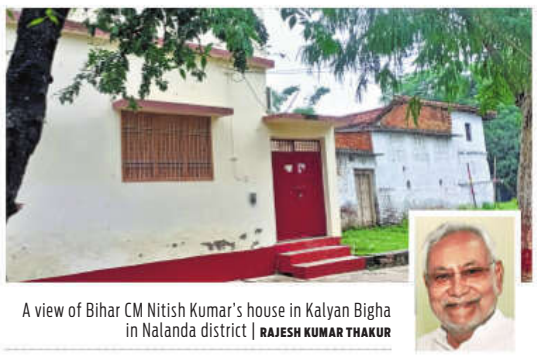

The State government has announced an ex gratia of ₹15 lakh each for the families of the nine devotees, who lost their lives in the stampede at Kasibugga

Srikakulam district Superintendent of Police KV Maheswara Reddy said the temple was built recently on a private land without proper permissions. "The structure, including the gate and stairway, was completed only 3-4 months ago. The crowd tried to enter through an exit gate with a seven-foot drop. The grill at the spot was weak, and collapsed due to the pressure, leading to the fall of several devotees," he explained.

No permission was sought from local police for crowd management. "A case has been registered against the temple owner, Hari Mukunda Panda, under various sections of culpable homicide," the SP said.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi expressed grief over the tragedy, and announced an ex-gratia of ₹2 lakh to each of the families of the deceased, and ₹50,000 to those injured in the incident. Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu directed officials to ensure immediate medical aid and relief.

The state government said the temple was not under the control of the endowments department. Harimukund Panda acknowledged that they were unprepared for the surge in devotees. "We rarely get more than a 1,000 even on special days. Today, several thousands arrived for darshan. We did not anticipate the crowd, and did not alert the police," he admitted.

A view of Bihar CM Nitish Kumar's house in Kalyan Bigha in Nalanda district | RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR

2005 fallout on Lalu, Nitish villages

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ Nalanda/Gopalganj

IN Bihar's political heartland, two villages—Kalyan Bigha in Nalanda and Fulwaria in Gopalganj — stand as contrasting portraits of their most illustrious sons, Chief Minister Nitish Kumar and former Chief Minister Lalu Prasad Yadav.

Kalyan Bigha, Nitish Kumar's ancestral village, mirrors the CM's focus on development and order. The once-sleepy hamlet now gleams with smooth roads, solar-lit lanes, and uninterrupted electricity. On the spectrum's far-end, former CM Lalu Prasad Yadav's Fulwaria reflects the fading imprint of a political era long past. Once popularly referred to as a "mini-secretariat" during the RJD's rule from 1990 to 2005, Fulwaria is now lost in the tedious warp of time, with whatever once built now slowly withering away.

In Kalyan Bigha, where Nitish Kumar is affectionately called as "Munna", villagers speak with pride and gratitude. "Our Munna has made this village immortal with development works," said 70-year-old Girendra Singh, sitting under a tree near the market that's buzzing with evening chatter. The village has round-the-clock electricity, high speed internet, a referral hospital, a high school upgraded to the 10+2 level, an ITI, a shooting range and a spacious guest house.

Nitish's ancestral double-storey home remains locked for most of the year, except during his visits to the Smriti-sthal, a memorial built in memory of his parents and wife. Nearby, the restored Devi-sthal — where he reportedly prays before major political moves — serves as the village's spiritual heart.

Every corner echoes the villagers' affection for both Nitish and his son, Nishant Kumar. Their only worry— why the NDA hasn't formally projected Nitish again as chief ministerial face.

About 200 km away, in Fulwaria, the once-busy helipad is in ruin, the railway station silent, and battered link roads carry the scars of neglect. "Samay ka chakra hai. Jo kal chamakta tha aaj murjha raha hai (It's the wheel of time. What once used to shine has now lost its glitter)," says Parmeshwari Singh, watching cattle graze where choppers once landed.

Fulwaria's old hospital still functions but in a ramshackle state. Lalu Yadav's two-storey ancestral home, with a statue of his mother inside, serves as a reminder of his past glory.

Villagers hope for a revival under Tejashwi Yadav. "When he comes to power, Fulwaria will bloom again," says Nityanand, a youth.

Polavaram proj displaced families receive ₹1,000 cr compensation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

A festive atmosphere prevailed at Velerupadu in Eluru district on Saturday as the State government distributed ₹1,000 crore compensation to families displaced by the Polavaram Irrigation Project.

The compensation, covering land acquisition and rehabilitation package, was directly credited into beneficiaries' bank accounts at a public meeting addressed by Water Resources Minister Nimmala Ramanaidu.

He said, "By December 2026, we will ensure full compensation is paid to all families affected by Phase-1 of Polavaram project."

The event saw the Water Resources Minister, along with the displaced performing 'Ksheera Abhishekam' to the portraits of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu, and Deputy Chief Minister Pawan Kalyan. Ramanaidu expressed gratitude to the trio for their roles in advancing the project, and supporting the affected families.

Water Resources Minister N Ramanaidu distributes ₹1,000 crore compensation to Polavaram project displaced families at Velerupadu on Saturday | EXPRESS

Highlighting past efforts, he recalled that during the previous TDP regime (2014-19), ₹700 crore was distributed in 2016, and another ₹900 crore in January this year under the current coalition government. "This is the second tranche of ₹1,000 crore going directly into your accounts," he said, pledging continued full-hearted support to all the oustees.

Criticising the previous YSRCP regime, he accused it of stalling the project, and abandoning the displaced. "While the TDP completed 72% of the project work during 2014-19, the YSRCP managed less than 3% in its five year term, setting progress back by 25 years," he said.

Tenders worth ₹739 crore for rehabilitation colonies, and infrastructure have been finalised recently. Currently, 49 out of 75 planned colonies are under construction, with parallel efforts on development of basic amenities. Phase-1 rehabilitation and resettlement (R&R) under the 41.15 metre project contour will be completed by June 2026, he promised.

A dedicated grievance cell is being set up to address the issues of displaced.

The NDA government aims to complete the Polavaram project by December 2027, Ramanaidu added.

'Collective security key to sovereignty'

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

DEFENCE Minister Rajnath Singh reaffirmed India's stance in the Indo-Pacific, stressing that its emphasis on the "rule of law" does not target any country but seeks to protect regional interests collectively.

Speaking at the 12th ASEAN Defence Ministers' Meeting — Plus (12th ADMM-Plus) meeting in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, Singh underscored that India's advocacy of the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea and freedom of navigation reflects a commitment to inclusivity and stability in the region.

"India's emphasis on the rule of law and its advocacy for freedom of navigation and overflight in the Indo-Pacific, are not directed against any country but are meant to safeguard the collective interests of all regional stakeholders," said Singh on Saturday.

ArcelorMittal gets environmental clearance for Anakapalli steel plant

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

IN a major milestone for Andhra Pradesh's industrial growth, the Expert Appraisal Committee (EAC) under the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change (MoEFCC) has recommended environmental clearance for ArcelorMittal Nippon Steel's (AM/NS) 8.2 million tonnes per annum (MTPA) greenfield integrated steel plant in Anakapalli district.

Backed by a ₹1.5 lakh crore investment, the project, India's largest greenfield steel manufacturing initiative, has secured all major approvals, including land, in just 14 months since AM/NS first engaged with the State government in August 2024. The joint venture between ArcelorMittal and Japan's Nippon Steel will develop the plant in phases, starting with 8.2 MTPA integrated steel capacity, and eventually scaling to 24 MTPA.

Project to promote industrial growth

The project is expected to catalyse infra development in the region, strengthen the Vizag–Anakapalli–Kakinada industrial belt, and anchor India's position as a major player in steel production

The facility will use advanced, energy-efficient, and low-emission technologies that meet global standards for sustainability and carbon management.

Set to become the key anchor for the Andhra Pradesh Industrial Corridor, the plant will enable the growth of steel-based downstream units, machinery production clusters, and logistics networks across north coastal Andhra Pradesh.

The State government has allotted the required land within three months, and extended single-window facilitation, allowing the company to obtain all necessary statutory and environmental clearances without any delay. The foundation stone will be laid during the CII Partnership Summit in Visakhapatnam on November 14 and 15, 2025, in the presence of top global CEOs, policymakers, and industrial leaders. P4

ICC WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

Final destination: Harmanpreet & Co set to take a shot at immortality

GOMESH S @ Navi Mumbai

IT doesn't get any bigger than this — India team is set for the final of the home ICC Women's Cricket World Cup here on Sunday. Their final obstacle before getting their hands on their first-ever ICC Trophy are South Africa — a team and country chasing a history of their own.

One just needed to stroll along the roads around the DY Patil Stadium to understand what the final meant to the teams. With more than 24 hours to go, thousands of fans had flocked the gates and lanes of the venue, trying their luck to get tickets for the game. The official ticketing partner had gone from 'coming soon' to 'event closed' overnight, leaving the fans disappointed. Excitement was palpable as myriad emotions gripped the fans.

The pressure of 'availability of tickets' did not spare the India captain either. Though it was an avoidable nuisance for players, Harmanpreet Kaur understood the gravity of it. She rather cheekily welcomed it. "I think it's good that not only for cricket on the field but there is pressure for tickets also," she said during the press conference on Saturday. This daily has reported how ticket prices on resaling websites have shot the roof. As much as Kaur had an off-the-cuff reply, the enormity of the occasion had not gone past her. Leading the country in a home World Cup for first time, she knew how crucial the final will be for women's cricket.

Despite the high points of the 2005, 2017 and 2020 World Cup finals (two ODIs and one T20), the silverware has remained elusive. With Sunday offering the chance to reshape history, it is understandable why Kaur called the home WC final the biggest thing in their lives. "We know how it feels to lose, but we are really looking forward to seeing how it feels after we win. Hopefully, this day tomorrow (Sunday) will be special for us," said Kaur. If they manage to win, they will change the course of women's cricket in India forever. P11

Centre promoting only Hindi & Sanskrit: Siddu

'Children read, write, think and dream in their mother tongue. However, only English and Hindi are promoted now'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah again raised the issue of lack of funds from the central government, and this time to develop Kannada. "The central government has been giving Karnataka stepmotherly treatment over the past few years. The state contributes ₹4.5 lakh crore to the Centre in taxes, but receives a low share of grants. The Centre comes up with different policies and schemes to impose Hindi on us, and has been giving grants to develop only Hindi and Sanskrit."

He was addressing teachers, students and education department officials on Kannada Rajyotsava Day at Kanteerava Stadium in Bengaluru on Saturday.

"The Centre is ignoring all other languages, including Kannada. Despite Kannada being recognised as a classical language, the Centre is not giving sufficient grants to develop it. Kannada has not received enough financial and institutional support like other languages," he said.

He stressed that mother tongue should be the medium of instruction in schools. "Children read, write, think and dream in their mother tongue. However, only English and Hindi are promoted, hindering the progress of learning among children. It is important to formulate laws to impart learning in schools in mother tongue. I urge the central government to look into this issue," he added.

He said, "This year, Banu Mushtaq and Deepa Bhasthi have taken our language to the global platform by winning the International Booker Prize."

He said, "Our government has taken steps to increase the popularity of Kannada. We are doing various activities across the state under the theme Hesarayitu Karnataka, Usiragali Kannada. We have also made it mandatory for commercial establishments to have Kannada on their name boards covering at least 60% of the space."

He said the government has spent over ₹65,000 crore to strengthen the education department. "Over eight lakh children are studying in residential schools across the state. Over 3,000 schools have completed 100 years and 800 new Karnataka Public Schools will start from next year. Every school will have infrastructure worth ₹4 crore," he said.

The state government will also introduce Kannada in madrasas across the state to bring minorities into the mainstream.

"Already, 180 madrasas are teaching Kannada and this will be further extended to 1,500 schools. Our government is investing Rs 83 crore to develop 100 Urdu medium schools similar to Karnataka Public Schools," he added.

Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar, said, "A decision will be taken in the next cabinet meeting on hoisting Kannada flags in private and government offices for entire November."

He added, "We need to protect Kannada from the attacks of English and Hindi. Our state is not just a state, it is a place of culture. Kannada is not just a language, it is innermost voice. It is a nectar for those who have learned, shade for those who have walked, and a beacon of light. Kannada is a way of life."

Jagga Reddy accuses Modi of neglecting AP & TG, bifurcation promises not met

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Sangareddy

TPCC working president T Jayaprakash Reddy, also known as Jagga Reddy, criticised Prime Minister Narendra Modi, saying Andhra Pradesh and Telangana gained nothing despite continuous support from Telugu leaders across three terms.

He said former chief ministers K Chandrasekhar Rao, YS Jagan Mohan Reddy, and now N Chandrababu Naidu backed Modi but failed to secure central funds, prioritising their political survival over state development.

Addressing reporters on Saturday, Jagga Reddy asserted that India would progress in all sectors only if Rahul Gandhi became the prime minister. He urged people to ensure the Congress and its allies win 300 MP seats in the upcoming elections to make Rahul Gandhi the PM, adding that promises made by the UPA during bifurcation would be fulfilled under his leadership. He expressed confidence that Telangana's development, Andhra Pradesh's special package, resolution of the Vizag Steel Plant issue, and completion of the Polavaram Project would materialise only under Rahul's leadership.

Jagga Reddy also questioned whether the BJP government had implemented even a single scheme like NREGA, which ensured employment and wages for rural workers.

Israel says 3 bodies sent from Gaza not of hostages

Truce under strain as Hamas reports more Israeli attacks in south

JERUSALEM

ISRAEL said on Saturday that three bodies it received from Gaza the night before were not hostages held in the Palestinian territory, as a Hamas security source reported fresh strikes in the south.

Despite occasional flare-ups, a fragile truce has been holding in Gaza since October 10, based on a US-brokered deal centred on the return of all Israeli hostages, both living and dead.

Israel's military told AFP that a forensic analysis revealed that three bodies it received via the Red Cross on Friday were not those of any of the deceased captives still to be handed over as part of the ceasefire deal.

Hamas's armed wing said Saturday that it had handed over bodies it had not positively identified, alleging Israel had declined its offer to provide samples for testing and "demanded the bodies for examination".

"We handed them over to preempt any enemy claims," the Ezzedine Al-Qassam Brigades said.

After the start of the truce, Hamas returned the 20 surviving hostages still in its custody and began the process of returning the remains of the dead. Of the 17 bodies returned since the start of the ceasefire, 15 were Israelis, one was Thai and one was Nepalese.

Hamas has also returned another unidentified body that had not been listed among the 28 missing, as well as the partial remains of a deceased Israeli hostage who had already been recovered early in the war.

Smoke billowing during an Israeli air strike on Gaza | AFP

That incident drew outrage in Israel, which said the group had violated the agreement by returning the partial remains rather than the body of another hostage.

Israel has accused Hamas of not returning the dead hostages quickly enough, but the Palestinian group says it will take time to locate remains buried in Gaza's ruins.

In its statement Saturday, the Al-Qassam Brigades called on mediators and the Red Cross to provide the "necessary equipment and personnel to work on recovering all the bodies simultaneously".

Hamas and Israel, meanwhile, have traded accusations of breaking the ceasefire.

A Hamas security source told AFP on Saturday that Israel had carried out several air strikes in the south at dawn, and that "warships opened fire toward the shores of Khan Yunis".

Earlier in the week, the Israeli military launched its deadliest night of bombing since the truce after one of its soldiers was killed in south Gaza, with the territory's civil defence agency reporting more than 100 people killed. AFP

Missile attacks on Ukraine hit 2.5-year high

KYIV

RUSSIA fired more missiles at Ukraine in October than in any month since at least the start of 2023 as it pounded the country's energy grid in nighttime attacks, an AFP analysis of Ukrainian data showed.

Russian strikes have caused sweeping blackouts affecting tens of thousands of people, with Moscow targeting Ukraine's power grid for the fourth winter running in what Kyiv and its backers say is a deliberate and cynical strategy to wear down Ukraine's civilian population.

Russia's army fired 270 missiles over October, up 46 percent on the previous month, according to an AFP analysis of daily data published by Ukraine's air force.

That was the highest one-month tally since Kyiv started routinely publishing statistics at the beginning of 2023.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky has accused Russia of wanting to sow "chaos" by striking the country's energy grid so intensely.

"Russia's task is to create chaos and apply psychological pressure on the population through strikes on energy facilities and railways," Zelensky told journalists.

As in previous winters, rolling blackouts have been introduced in every region of the country, including Kyiv, throughout October to deal with shortfalls in power.

The International Criminal Court (ICC) in the Hague last year issued arrest warrants for top Russian army officials for the "war crime of causing excessive" harm to civilians by striking Ukrainian energy sites. Russia also fired 5,298 long-range drones. AFP

China to exempt Nexperia chips from semiconductor

BEIJING

CHINA said on Saturday it will exempt some Nexperia chips from an export ban that was imposed over a row with Dutch officials and has alarmed European businesses.

Anxiety over chip shortages began when the Netherlands invoked a Cold War-era law in late September to effectively take control of Nexperia, whose parent company Wingtech is backed by the Chinese government.

China, in response, banned any re-exports of Nexperia chips to Europe and accused the United States of meddling in Dutch legal procedures to remove Nexperia's Chinese chief executives officer.

Beijing blamed what it said on Saturday was "the Dutch government's improper intervention in the internal affairs of enterprises" for leading to "the current chaos in the global supply chain".

"We will comprehensively consider the actual situation of enterprises and grant exemptions to exports that meet the criteria," a Chinese commerce ministry spokesperson said in a statement, without offering specifics.

The resumption of some Nexperia shipments was part of a trade deal agreed by Chinese President Xi Jinping and his US counterpart Donald Trump after talks in South Korea on Thursday, the Wall Street Journal reported, citing unidentified sources.

Chinese and European Union officials were also to discuss Nexperia while meeting in Brussels, EU spokesman Olof Gill had said.

Those talks on Friday were "a welcome opportunity for both sides to update on... the introduction and implementation of export controls", Gill said in a statement on Saturday.

The discussions covered "controls on rare earth elements introduced or proposed by China, as well as an update on controls and developments on the EU side", he said.

The statement did not mention Nexperia specifically.

Separately, Berlin welcomed Beijing's move as a "positive sign" on Saturday.

"The latest reports from China are positive initial signs of an easing of tensions," an economy ministry spokesman said.

Nexperia produces relatively simple technologies such as diodes, voltage regulators and transistors that are nonetheless crucial as vehicles increasingly rely on electronics.

Its chips are mainly found in cars but also in a wide range of industrial components, as well as consumer and mobile electronics such as refrigerators. AFP

Next APEC summit in Shenzhen, says Xi Jinping

Beijing: China will host the next year's APEC Economic Leaders' Meeting in November 2026, Chinese President Xi Jinping announced on Saturday. The 2026 summit of leaders of 21 Asian and Pacific Rim nations will be held at Shenzhen, he said while speaking at the concluding session of this year's meeting being held at Gyeongju in South Korea. Next year's summit will be China's third Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation leaders' meeting as a host. Speaking at the second session of the 32nd APEC Economic Leaders' Meeting on Saturday, Xi said economies in the Asia-Pacific region should strengthen mutually beneficial cooperation.

Tanzania Prez opposition says 800 killed in poll unrest

DAR ES SALAAM

TANZANIAN President Samia Suluhu Hassan condemned protests around the election in which she was declared winner on Saturday with almost 98 percent of the vote, while the opposition said hundreds have been killed by security forces.

The electoral commission said Hassan won 97.66 percent of the vote and turnout was at 87 percent, despite reports from AFP journalists and other observers that polling stations were largely empty early Wednesday before election day descended into violent protests.

"The government strongly condemns the violent incidents. These incidents were not patriotic at all," said Hassan as she accepted a winner's certificate on state television.

Hassan, 65, had sought to cement her position and silence critics in her party with an emphatic victory in which the main opposition candidates were either jailed or barred from the election.

But a heavy crackdown and the lack of alternative candidates sparked mass protests around the country.

The main opposition party, Chadema, told AFP "no less than 800 people" have been killed by security forces since Wednesday—claims that could not be independently verified.

A security source and diplomat in Dar es Salaam both told AFP that deaths were "in the hundreds", but verifying information is difficult as an internet blackout remained in place on Saturday. AFP

US, Pak hold talks on minerals sector cooperation

ISLAMABAD

A US delegation held talks with Pakistani officials to seek cooperation in minerals and mining as Washington races to secure mineral supply chains for American industry amid concerns over China's increasing control on rare-earth resources.

The US delegation, led by Critical Minerals Forum (CMF) chief Robert Louis Strayer II, along with US Charg' d'Affaires Natalie Baker, met Minister for Finance & Revenue Muhammad Aurangzeb and his team on Friday.

According to an official statement, the US delegation "discussed avenues of cooperation in the minerals and mining sector, strengthening supply-chain security, and encouraging responsible and sustainable investment in Pakistan's critical minerals landscape".

It said that Aurangzeb highlighted Pakistan's ongoing structural reforms, fiscal discipline, and positive global outlook, emphasising that a robust minerals policy can drive Pakistan toward export-led growth and long-term economic stability.

Both sides reaffirmed commitment to continued engagement and collaboration aligned with Pakistan's reform agenda and shared goals for sustainable development, it added. Dawn reported that the CMF's focus is driven by the strategic threat posed by Beijing's control over key resources. "China's dominance of critical mineral supply chains has become a well-known threat to US national security, economic competitiveness, and long-term strategic objectives," Strayer wrote on the CMF website.

The forum, he said, "focused on rare and niche metals, including copper and antimony, perspectives". PTI

Egypt unveils huge museum of ancient civilisation

CAIRO

EGYPT on Saturday inaugurated the long-delayed Grand Egyptian Museum, the world's largest museum dedicated to an ancient civilisation—a megaproject also aimed at boosting the country's tourism industry and troubled economy.

Two decades in the making, the museum located near the Giza Pyramids and Sphinx showcases over 50,000 artifacts detailing life in ancient Egypt. It will display the entire collection of treasures from the tomb of the famed King Tutankhamun for the first time since its discovery in 1922. World leaders, including monarchs, heads of states and governments, were to attend the grand opening ceremony in the Egyptian capital, according to the president's office, which touted the museum as "an exceptional event in the history of human culture and civilisation".

President Abdel-Fattah el-Sissi wrote on social media that the museum will bring "together the genius of ancient Egyptians and the creativity of modern Egyptians, enhancing the world culture and art with a new landmark that will attract all those who cherish civilisation and knowledge."

The museum, known as GEM, is one of several megaprojects championed by el-Sissi since he took office in 2014, embarking on massive investments in infrastructure with the aim of reviving an economy weakened by decades of stagnation and battered by the unrest that followed the 2011 Arab Spring uprising. The museum is expected to attract 5 million visitors annually, said Egyptian businessman Sir Mohamed Mansour, who is a member of GEM's board of trustees. AFP
