Be strong to face challenges: Rahul to Cong dist presidents

Nitish Sharma
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

KURUKSHETRA, JANUARY 21

Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha and senior Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Wednesday called upon newly appointed District Congress Committee (DCC) presidents of Haryana and Uttarakhand to remain internally strong and focus on strengthening the party's grassroots base to effectively face political adversities.

He was addressing the 'Sangathan Srijan', a 10-day organisational training camp being organised by the All India Congress Committee (AICC) for district presidents of the two states since January 13 at the Punjabi Dharamshala in Kurukshetra.

He spent nearly five-and-a-half hours at the venue, during which he held one-to-one interactions with the leaders, met their family members, shared personal experiences and discussed key political and organisational issues.

A senior Congress leader said Rahul Gandhi also demonstrated his martial art skills and urged party functionaries to strengthen themselves internally and physically. He told them that despite being constantly targeted by political opponents, such attacks did not affect him.

"He said though he remains on the target of other parties, such things don't make a difference to him, and becoming internally strong is the way to counter the Opposition," the leader said.

During his address, Gandhi explained the Congress' policies and philosophy, stressed the need to strengthen the organisation at the booth and district levels and asked the DCC presidents to follow party discipline and guidelines strictly. He also discussed ways to counter the BJP and touched upon wider subjects such as the liberation of Bangladesh, India's growing influence in international affairs and the need to unite the country to make it a global superpower.

The DCC presidents said Rahul Gandhi's interaction instilled confidence among them and would help them raise public issues more effectively. They said he motivated them to spread the party's ideology from the grassroots level to the general public. During his visit, Rahul also held discussions with former Haryana CM Bhupinder Singh Hooda, HPCC president Rao Narender Singh and other senior leaders.

International textile institute to be set up in Panipat: CM Saini

Aatmanirbhar Textile Policy extended till December 18

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

PANIPAT, JANUARY 21

Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini on Wednesday announced that an international-level textile institute will be established in Panipat, for which 10 acres will be provided by the state government.

The announcement was made during a pre-budget consultation meeting with representatives of the textile, food processing and other industries from Panipat, Sonepat and Karnal.

CM Nayab Singh Saini interacts with industrialists in Panipat on Wednesday.

Addressing the gathering, the Chief Minister described Panipat as a historic city of weavers and said its textile industry has brought recognition not only to Haryana but to the entire country. "Keeping in view Panipat's legacy and the demands of industry organisations, the institute will provide technical expertise as per international standards," he said.

Saini also announced that the validity of the Haryana Aatmanirbhar Textile Policy has been extended by one year, till December 18, 2026, in response to industry demands.

Highlighting the growing importance of food processing, the Chief Minister said the sector acts as a strong bridge between farmers and consumers. "It ensures better prices for farmers' produce, connects them with modern technology and makes agriculture a profitable enterprise," he said.

Referring to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Saini said the textile sector connects India with the world, just as a loom weaves threads together. He also recalled the Prime Minister's Five-F vision — Farm to Fibre, Fibre to Factory, Factory to Fashion and Fashion to Foreign — and said Haryana is committed to realising it.

Under the capital investment subsidy scheme, Saini said there will now be no cap on the number of cases. "All eligible entrepreneurs will be supported by the government," he said.

Sharing data, the Chief Minister said 354 applications have been received under the Haryana Aatmanirbhar Textile Policy, with grants worth Rs 367 crore already approved. "This policy reflects the trust of entrepreneurs in the state," he added.

Saini said there is a growing global demand for chemical-free and naturally dyed textiles. Urging exporters to diversify beyond traditional products, he said understanding global market trends is essential. The CM said special provisions have been made in the budget for women's skill development.

Rights panel takes note of illegal PGs, encroachment on footpaths in G'gram

The Tribune IMPACT

Tribune News Service

CHANDIGARH, JANUARY 21

The Haryana Human Rights Commission (HHRC) on Wednesday took suo motu cognisance of The Tribune's stories, '7,000 illegal PGs, guesthouses being run in Gurugram,' and 'No place to walk, 75% footpaths encroached upon in Gurugram.'

In the case of illegal paying guests (PGs) accommodations, the commission has directed the Director General of the Urban Local Bodies Department (ULBD), Director General of the Town and Country Planning Department (TCPD), Director General of Fire and Emergency Services, Chief Administrator of Haryana Shehri Vikas Pradhikaran (HSVP), Deputy Commissioner of Gurugram, Chief Executive Officer of Gurugram Metropolitan Development Authority (GMDA) and Commissioner of Gurugram Municipal Corporation to submit reports on the actions taken.

The relevant authorities have been asked to furnish details on the number of PGs and guesthouses operating in residential areas, their registration and licensing status, fire and safety compliance measures, action taken against illegal establishments and preventive steps proposed to safeguard life and human rights.

The Tribune story published on January 18 uncovered widespread illegal growth of PG accommodations and guesthouses in residential areas of Gurugram. It highlighted that residential buildings are being transformed into overcrowded commercial lodging units without registration or approval from the Municipal Corporation, violating applicable building, zoning and fire safety regulations.

The Commission Bench comprising Chairperson Justice Lalit Batra, Member Kuldip Jain and Member Deep Bhatia observed that such illegal use of residential accommodations "leads to overcrowding, power and water infrastructure collapse, sanitation issues, traffic congestion and serious safety risks." It added, "The mushrooming of PGs and guesthouses in residential areas is, therefore, not a minor municipal irregularity, but a gross violation of statutory planning norms." The commission noted that similar illegal PGs in Mukherjee Nagar, Delhi, led to a serious fire incident in September 2023, and also in Noida in March 2025, where girls had to jump from upper floors to escape through adjacent buildings. It added, "The failure of the authorities concerned to effectively regulate, monitor and prevent these hazards amounts to state inaction, resulting in a breach of constitutional obligations and a direct infringement of the human rights of affected persons."

In regard to 'No place to walk, 75% footpaths encroached upon in Gurugram', published on January 19, the commission has directed the relevant authorities of ULBD, TCPD, HSVP, GMDA, DC Gurugram and Commissioner of Police, Gurugram, to submit reports on action taken.

They have been asked to furnish details on the extent of footpath encroachments and the action taken to remove those. Further details on measures adopted to ensure pedestrian safety in high-speed and residential zones, as well as timelines for the restoration and long-term protection of footpaths, have also been sought.

The next date in both cases is March 25.

Plea challenging AG's appointment dismissed

CHANDIGARH, JANUARY 21

The Punjab and Haryana High Court on Wednesday dismissed a public interest litigation against Pravindra Singh Chauhan's engagement as Haryana Advocate-General (AG) after holding that he fully satisfied the constitutional eligibility prescribed under the Constitution.

The Division Bench headed by Chief Justice Sheel Nagu made it clear that a writ of "quo warranto" could be issued only if the holder of a constitutional or statutory office lacked the basic eligibility to occupy it. — TNS
