BJP DEMANDS PROBE INTO INFANT's DEATH AT KUMMERA MALLANNA JATHARA

From Our Staff Reporter

Hyderabad, Feb., 24 : The Telangana unit of the BJP on Tuesday demanded a thorough inquiry into the death of a two-month-old infant following an alleged brutal attack on a family from a weaker section during the Mallanna Jathara at Kummera village in Nagarkurnool district.

BJP State President N. Ramchander Rao visited Nagarkurnool and consoled the bereaved family. Addressing the media, he described the incident as "inhuman and heart-wrenching", stating that the attack on a marginalized family and the subsequent death of the infant had shocked the conscience of society. Rao demanded that the State government order an immediate and impartial inquiry, ensure justice to the victim's family, and announce ex-gratia compensation. He questioned how justice could be expected when cases were allegedly filed against the victim's family and their complaint ignored. "This reflects total failure and negligence on the part of the police, amounting to a violation of the law", he alleged, adding that there were suspicions that authorities were shielding the perpetrators instead of taking action.

Referring to recent incidents, Rao cited the reported lock-up death of Dalit youth Karla Rajesh in Kodad and claimed that attacks on poor and marginalized communities were on the rise. The BJP leader targeted Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy, alleging that the administration had lost control over law and order. "The police system appears to be functioning under the influence of ruling party MLAs and leaders. It seems the system is no longer listening even to the Chief Minister", he charged.

Raising concerns over alleged money collections at temples during the Kummera Mallanna Jatara, Rao questioned who had authorized such collections. "Temples should not be turned into collection centres", he said, urging the Endowments Department to monitor and curb illegal collections. He further alleged that under the Congress government, sacred temples were being turned into hubs for extorting money from devotees.

BJP SC Morcha State President Kanthi Kiran, ST Morcha State President Ravi Nayak, OBC Morcha State President Anand Goud, BJYM State President Ganesh Kunde, Nagarkurnool District President Narender, State Secretary Bharat Prasad, and senior leaders Achary, Dileepachari, Thaduri Srinivas, Katta Sudhakar, and KVLN Reddy were present at the press meet.

AIDWA SLAMS GUJARAT MOVE TO MANDATE PARENTAL CONSENT FOR MARRIAGE

Hyderabad: The All India Democratic Women's Association (AIDWA) has strongly condemned the proposal by the Government of Gujarat to make parental consent mandatory in marriages through amendments to the Gujarat Registration of Marriages Act, 2006. AIDWA termed the move a "blatant attempt" to curb the autonomy and personal freedom of adults, especially women. The organization alleged that the proposal aims to control choice in matters of marriage, interfaith and inter-caste relationships, under the guise of preventing "love jihad". The association argued that the proposal violates constitutional guarantees and Supreme Court rulings, including the landmark Justice K.S. Puttaswamy vs Union of India case, which upheld the right to privacy and personal autonomy. It also cited judgments such as Lata Singh vs State of Uttar Pradesh and Shafin Jahan vs Asokan K.M, affirming that consenting adults do not require parental approval to marry. Calling the proposal regressive and unconstitutional, AIDWA demanded that the Gujarat government immediately withdraw the amendment and uphold the dignity and rights of young women and men. The statement was issued by AIDWA President P.K. Sreemathi, Legal Advisor Adv. Kirti Singh, and General Secretary Kaninika Ghosh.

CPI HOLDS ROUND TABLE, SEEKS HALT TO "OPERATION KAGAAR"

From Our Staff Reporter

Hyderabad, Feb., 24 : The Communist Party of India (CPI) on Tuesday convened a round table meeting at its state office, Maqdoom Bhavan, urging the Centre to immediately stop the ongoing "Operation Kagaar-2" against the Maoists and create conditions for them to join mainstream public life with dignity.

Leaders of Left parties, political outfits and civil society groups participated in the meeting chaired by CPI State Secretary Kunamneni Sambasiva Rao. Among those present were MLC M. Kodandaram, CPI leaders E.T. Narasimha and V.S. Bose, CPI(M) leader Bandari Rajkumar, representatives of CPI (New Democracy), CPI (ML Massline), CPI (ML - Liberation), RSP, and members of civil rights organisations. The speakers appealed to the Union government to abandon "war-like approach" and instead encourage Maoists to give up armed struggle and enter democratic politics. They demanded withdrawal of cases filed under the 'Urban Naxalite' tag against the activists, including poet-activist Varavara Rao. Addressing the gathering, Sambasiva Rao said while Marxism remains the ideological goal of communists, the methods of struggle must change with evolving circumstances. He argued that armed struggle is no longer viable and cited Nepal as an example where change was achieved through democratic movements.

He urged the Maoists to join mainstream politics and called on the Centre to ensure dignified rehabilitation without "scapegoating". He questioned the government's approach, stating that any wrongdoing must be addressed under the law rather than through alleged extra-judicial measures.

MLC Prof. Kodandaram said ideological differences should not translate into treating Maoists as enemies of the people. He stressed that the government must act strictly within constitutional and legal limits, noting that courts have previously ordered probes into encounter killings.

CPI(M) leader Bandari Rajkumar accused the Centre of undermining constitutional values and said Left parties must focus on core public issues rather than divisive agendas. He called for unity among progressive forces. Meanwhile, in a significant development, four senior leaders of the banned Communist Party of India (Maoist) surrendered before Telangana Police here on Tuesday. Those who laid down arms include Politburo member Devji alias Tippiri Tirupati, Central Committee member Malla Rajireddy alias Sangram, Telangana State Secretary Bade Chokka Rao alias Damodar alias Jagan, and State Committee member Noone Narasimha Reddy alias Ganganna. Speaking to the media, Devji said health reasons prompted his decision. "I want to move from underground life to open public life. I will continue to work for the people and plan to enter politics soon", he said, adding that he would respond to detailed questions at an appropriate time.
