US REJECTS IRAN TERMS to and from them.

Britain and France are sending vessels to the region and are leading efforts to create an international coalition to secure the Strait after a peace deal is reached.

The two countries will also send a multinational meeting of defense ministers from more than 40 nations on Tuesday to discuss military plans to restore trade flows through the Strait.

But French President Emmanuel Macron insisted his country had "never envisaged" a naval deployment in Hormuz, rather a security mission coordinated with the US.

Iranian officials warned the two countries would face a "decisive and immediate response" if their ships were deployed to the Strait.

"Restraint over" - As diplomatic momentum appeared to dwindle, fresh drone attacks in the Gulf on Sunday rattled the ceasefire.

The United Arab Emirates said its air defenses intercepted a drone attack launched from Iran, while Kuwait reported "hostile drones" in its airspace.

Qatar's defense ministry also said a freighter arriving in its waters from Abu Dhabi was hit by a drone.

In a social media post on Sunday, the spokesman for the Iranian parliament's national security commission warned Washington: "Our restraint is over as of today."

"Any attack on our vessels will trigger a strong and decisive Iranian response against American ships and bases," Ebrahim Raisi said.

The WHO recommended close monitoring of the former passengers, and many countries alerted from the Spanish health ministry. Earlier, officials from the Spanish health ministry, the WHO and the Export-Import Bank of India.

Expatriates had said none of the more than 40 people who were then on the ship had shown symptoms of the virus. All of the passengers were escorted Sunday from the ship to protective gear and arriving by plane. The planes arriving in Tenders were to fly out passengers from more than 20 countries in an evacuation.

Three people have died since the outbreak began, and five were infected.

WHO is recommending that passengers' home countries have access to monitoring and follow-up, which means daily health checks, either at home or in a specialised facility," said WHO's top epidemiologist.

Many countries have said their people will be quarantined or hospitalised for observation. Australia is sending a plane, expected to arrive Monday, to evacuate its people and those from nearby countries, such as Spain, and unspecified Asian countries, said Spanish health minister Monica Garcia.

He added, "Those who possess strength and capability also have the right to compassion."
