FROM ABANDONED MILLS TO THRIVING INDUSTRIES: UTTAR PRADESH'S INDUSTRIAL RESURGENCE

The Uttar Pradesh government has taken a visionary step to transform the state's industrial landscape. Under the leadership of Hon'ble Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, the government has made a historic decision to transfer 451 acres of land from inactive spinning mills of the Uttar Pradesh Cooperative Union to the Uttar Pradesh State Industrial Development Authority (UPSIDA). This land, located in Sitapur, Fatehpur, Prayagraj, Farrukhabad, and Ghazipur, had been lying unused for years. The government's main objective behind this decision is to accelerate industrial development in the state and create new employment opportunities for the youth. The closure of these spinning mills had led to a stagnation of economic activities in these regions. Now, UPSIDA will establish state-of-the-art industrial units on these lands, which will not only strengthen the state's economy but also uplift local communities.

UPSIDA (Uttar Pradesh Industrial Development Authority) has prepared specific industrial development plans for different regions of the state. Bulandshahr will be developed as a hub for information technology (IT), where IT parks, data centers, and other related infrastructure will be established. In Fatehpur, Kampil, Farrukhabad, Mauaima Prayagraj, Mahmudabad, Sitapur, priority will be given to electric vehicles (EVs), solar energy, and food processing industries, which will promote environmentally friendly and sustainable development. In Ghazipur, the textile and automobile industries will be revitalized, creating new opportunities for local artisans and workers.
