severally with future interest @11.75% p.a. compounded with monthly rests from 01.01.2025 till the date of realization along with costs and in default for sale of OA schedule property.

2. Summons served on D2 through paper publication, whereas summons sent to D1 returned with endorsement unclaimed hence, deemed to be served. They were set ex-parte on 24.07.2025 as called absent and no representation.

3. The Applicant Bank examined G. Meghanadh, Senior Manager, as AW-1 and marked 11 documents through him as Ex. A.1 to Ex. A.11.

4. Ld. Counsel for the Applicant Bank reported orders may be passed through merits. Perused the material placed on record.

5. The point that arises for consideration is:-

Whether the Applicant Bank is entitled for the claim made in the OA against the Defendants and OA schedule property?

6. As stated supra, the Defendants remained ex-parte. The Evidence Affidavit coupled with the recitals in the documents viz., Exs. A.1 to A.11 marked on behalf of the Applicant Bank clinches the claim of the Applicant Bank against the Defendants. Hence, I hold that the Defendants are jointly and severally liable to pay the OA claim to the Applicant Bank with future interest and costs.

7. In the result, the present Original Application No.134/2025 is allowed as under: - 23.10.25

i) The Defendants are jointly and severally liable to pay to the Applicant Bank a sum of Rs.3,10,31,169/- with future interest @7.40% p.a. simple from the date of application till the date of realization;

ii) the OA claim is secured by way of mortgage of property described in the schedule annexed to the OA and the applicant bank is entitled to proceed against the same to realise its debt;

iii) the applicant bank is also entitled to proceed against the person and properties of defendants for realization of its dues;

iv) the applicant bank is entitled for the costs.

8. The Applicant Bank is directed to file Cost Memo within 2 weeks from the date of receipt of this Order.

9. Issue Recovery Certificate accordingly.

10. Communicate a copy of this order to the parties concerned.

(Dictated to the steno, corrected, signed and pronounced by me in the open court on this the 23rd Day of October, 2025).
