XIV	Valuation
	Here, the procedure adopted for arriving at the valuation has to be highlighted. The valuer should consider all the three generic approaches of property valuation and state explicitly the reasons for adoption of/ rejection of a particular approach and the basis on which the final valuation judgement is arrived at. A detailed analysis and descriptive account of the approaches, assumptions made, basis adopted, supporting data (in terms of comparable sales), reconciliation of various factors, departures, final valuation arrived at has to be presented here.	It is an Industrial Property situated at Rural locality and Market approach is adopted for its Valuation.

MODEL CODE OF CONDUCT FOR VALUERS

{Adopted in line with Companies (Registered Valuers and Valuation Rules, 2017)}

All valuers empaneled with bank shall strictly adhere to the following code of conduct:

Integrity and Fairness

1 A valuer shall, in the conduct of his/its business, follow high standards of integrity and fairness in all his/its dealings with his/its clients and other valuers.

2 A valuer shall maintain integrity by being honest, straightforward, and forthright in all professional relationships.

3 A valuer shall endeavor to ensure that he/it provides true and adequate information and shall not misrepresent any facts or situations.

4 A valuer shall refrain from being involved in any action that would bring disrepute to the profession.

5 A valuer shall keep public interest foremost while delivering his services.

Professional Competence and Due Care

6 A valuer shall render at all times high standards of service, exercise due diligence, ensure proper care and exercise independent professional judgment.

7 A valuer shall carry out professional services in accordance with the relevant technical and professional standards that may be specified from time to time.

8 A valuer shall continuously maintain professional knowledge and skill to provide competent professional service based on up-to-date developments in practice, prevailing regulations/guidelines and techniques.

9 In the preparation of a valuation report, the valuer shall not disclaim liability for his/its expertise or deny his/its duty of care, except to the extent that the assumptions are based on statements of fact provided by the company or its auditors or consultants or information available in public domain and not generated by the valuer.

10 A valuer shall not carry out any instruction of the client insofar as they are incompatible with the requirements of integrity, objectivity and independence.

11 A valuer shall clearly state to his client the services that he would be competent to provide and the services for which he would be relying on other valuers or professionals or for which the client can have a separate arrangement with other valuers.

Independence and Disclosure of Interest

12 A valuer shall act with objectivity in his/its professional dealings by ensuring that his/its decisions are made without the presence of any bias, conflict of interest, coercion, or undue influence of any party, whether directly connected to the valuation assignment or not.

13 A valuer shall not take up an assignment if he/it or any of his/its relatives or associates is not independent in terms of association to the company.

14 A valuer shall maintain complete independence in his/its professional relationships and shall conduct the valuation independent of external influences.

15 A valuer shall wherever necessary disclose to the clients, possible sources of conflicts of duties and interests, while providing unbiased services.

16 A valuer shall not deal in securities of any subject company after any time when he/it first becomes aware of the possibility of his/its association with the valuation, and in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 or till the time the valuation report becomes public, whichever is earlier.

17 A valuer shall not indulge in "mandate snatching" or offering "convenience valuations" in order to cater to a company or clients needs.

18 As an independent valuer, the valuer shall not charge success fee (Success fees may be defined as a compensation / incentive paid to any third party for successful closure of transaction. In this case, approval of credit proposals.)

19 In any fairness opinion or independent expert opinion submitted by a valuer, if there has been a prior engagement in an unconnected transaction, the valuer shall declare the association with the company during the last five years.

Confidentiality

20 A valuer shall not use or divulge to other clients or any other party any confidential information about the subject company, which has come to his/its knowledge without proper and specific authority or unless there is a legal or professional right or duty to disclose.

Information Management

21 A valuer shall ensure that he/ it maintains written contemporaneous records for any decision taken, the reasons for taking the decision, and the information and evidence in support of such decision. This shall be maintained so as to sufficiently enable a reasonable person to take a view on the appropriateness of his/its decisions and actions.

22 A valuer shall appear, co-operate and be available for inspections and investigations carried out by the authority, any person authorized by the authority, the registered valuers organization with which he/it is registered or any other statutory regulatory body.
